

ACADEMIC TASTES

Make New Haven's standard in materials and styles of personal attire at least as high as that of any city in the country. We realized that when we came here. We have worked to meet and to anticipate the exacting demands. Yale men have generously responded to these efforts on our part. We reciprocate with still more zealous endeavor.

YALE NOTICES.

[Class and Association Secretaries are invited to contribute to this column.]

Sixty-Five.

Dear Classmates:—The thirty-fifth anniversary of our graduation from Yale will be celebrated at New Haven, June 26, 1900. As the success of the reunion depends so much upon the number of men present, your Committee would earnestly urge upon you to come and help make this meeting a memorable one in the annals of Sixty-Five.

Kindly advise immediately the probability of your attending so that we may arrange for the Class supper. Full particulars as to the exercises will be sent you upon our completing the various arrangements. Awaiting your prompt reply, we are

Your Class Committee. J. E. Chandler, C. Kimberly, W. C. Duyckinck, E. A. S. Man.

Address W. C. Duyckinck, 34 Nassau Street, New York City.
January 15, 1900.

Eighty-Two Dinner.

There will be a Class dinner at the Yale Club, 17 Madison Square, North, New York, Friday evening, March 2, at seven o'clock. It is desired to have the largest number possible present to welcome our Classmate Col. H. L. Williams, who is to be the guest of the evening. Application and checks ($3 each) may be sent to either of the undersigned.

H. H. Knapp, H. B. Platt, E. L. Dillingham, W. H. Parsons, Jr., 246 West 76th street.

Ninety Dinner.

There will be a reunion of the Class of Ninety at the Yale Club, 17 East 26th St., New York City, on Friday evening, March 9, 1900, at 7 p. m. The charge for dinner will be $2.

Two similar reunions have been held in previous years, and have proved very enjoyable, about thirty men being present each time. It is expected that this will be even more successful as it will be the last meeting before our decennial in New Haven next June.

All members of the Class are cordially invited, and are asked to send word not later than March 7 to Willard Parker, Jr., 135 Front St., New York City.

Ninety-Nine Dinner.

The first New York Ninety-Nine dinner is to be held at the Yale Club, No. 17 East Twenty-Sixth Street, New York, on Saturday, March 17, 1900, at KNOX Spring Hats Are Ready.
