

YALE ALUMNI NOTES.

Please report concerning yourself, facts which should be recorded in this column. Make report, also, about Yale men you know, and on matters, proper for record here, concerning which you have definite record. This will make the page of the greatest possible value. On request the Alumni Weekly will be glad to send postals to those who are in the way of getting, more or less often, Yale news and Yale personals.

'53—Rev. William F. V. Bartlett, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Lexington, Ky., has returned from a four months' stay in England.

'56—Hon. Chauncey M. Depew addressed the Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution, held in Washington last week.

'65—Dr. Robert P. Keep was elected a member of the Executive Committee of the Connecticut High and Classical School Association, at its annual meeting held in New Haven recently.

'66—G. Pierrepont Davis of Hartford, Conn., has just presented the Hartford Hospital with a very valuable outfit of electrical apparatus.

'67—Rev. A. E. Dunning has an article in the Congregationalist entitled "The Messiah's Healing Ministry."

'67—Prof. William H. Goodyear, curator of the museum of the Brooklyn Institute, will deliver a course of lectures at the Berkeley Lyceum, New York, on "Italian Cities."

Ex-'68—George Manierre of Chicago has recently been elected a trustee of the Newberry Library of that city.

'69—Prof. Talcott H. Russell of the Law School, addressed the Eastern Conference of Anti-Imperialists, held in Association Hall, Philadelphia, February 23.

'69—Prof. R. B. Richardson, director of the American School of Classical Studies at Athens, has completed the excavation of the old fountain of Pirene at Corinth.

'69—At the annual meeting of the Connecticut High and Classical School Association, held in New Haven recently, Edward G. Coy was elected a member of the Executive Committee.

'69 M.S.—Dr. G. A. Shelton, who was severely injured by a fall from his carriage some time ago, is completely recovered and is resuming his practice.

'71—Alfred Bishop Mason left New York, February 17, for the City of Mexico.

'73—S. T. Dutton addressed the National Education Association in Chicago recently.

'74—Owen F. Aldis is traveling around the world. His address is, Bank of Scotland, London.

'74—Dr. William S. Halsted has an article "Contributions to the Surgery of the Bile Passages" in the Johns Hopkins Hospital Bulletin for January.

'74—Rev. Hollis B. Frissell addressed a meeting in the chapel of the United Church, February 27 on "The Educational Work at Hampton," illustrating his address by a stereopticon.

'74—Hon. John G. Brady, who is territorial governor of our Alaskan possessions, made a speech on the "Possibilities of Alaska," before the Board of Trade in Bridgeport, at their annual banquet, held February 27.

'75—Hon John Patton, Jr., was toastmaster at the banquet of the Michigan Club, held at Detroit, February 21, when Lieut.-Governor Timothy L. Woodruff was the guest of honor.

'76—President Arthur T. Hadley has an article in the Review of Reviews for March entitled "Should We Subsidize Steamship Lines?"

'76—President Hadley is American editor of the supplement to the ninth edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica, now being prepared by the London Times.

Ex-'76—Harry Hamlin of Buffalo, N. Y., left last week for a two months' trip through Mexico to inspect gold mines. A train in which he traveled in Arizona was held up by train-robbers.

'76 S.—James L. Houghteling left Chicago March 1, for a month in the South.

'76 L.S.—President McKinley has appointed Francis H. Parker United States Attorney for the District of Connecticut. The appointment has been confirmed.

'77 M.S.—Dr. William C. Welch recently fell and injured his knee so that he has been compelled to use crutches.

'78—A banquet is to be given to Judge William H. Taft, March 24, in honor of his appointment to the Philippine Commission, by the Bar of the Sixth Judicial District, which includes the states of Ohio, Kentucky, Michigan and Tennessee.

'79—Poultney Bigelow has an article entitled "Germany's First Colony in China," in the March number of Harper's Magazine.

'79—Timothy L. Woodruff, during his recent Western trip, was the guest of President Harper of Chicago University, and addressed the students while he was there.

'81—C. P. Coffin lost by death his only son, William King Coffin, Sunday, February 25.

'81—Sherman Evarts delivered an address before the Alumni Association of St. Paul's School, in New York recently.

'81 S.—Charles Francis Adams has written a biography of his father Charles Francis Adams for the American Statesmen Series.

'83—Cleveland L. Moffett has an article on Edmund Rostrand in the March number of McClure's.

'83—At the closing session of the Connecticut High and Classical School Association held in New Haven, February 24, Frank H. Beede, New Haven, was elected Vice-President.

'83—George W. Johnston made an address on "Study of History," at the annual Washington's Birthday celebration of the Ohio Sons of the Revolution, held in Cincinnati, February 22. At the business meeting he was elected one of the Board of Managers for one year.

'84—Rev. E. M. Chapman will be at St. Johnsbury, Vt., after April 1st, as pastor of the North Congregational Church.

'85—Lucius F. Robinson has been elected a director of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Hartford, to succeed his father, the late Hon. Henry C. Robinson, '53, who was for many years a director of the Company.

'86—Frank E. Wing is one of the incorporators and directors and the clerk of the L. S. Starrett Co., manufacturers of mechanical tools, of Athol, Mass.

'86 and '90 S.—Announcement is made by the firm of William A. Otis & Co., bankers and brokers of Colorado Springs, Col., that the interest of Mr. James C. Connor in the firm has terminated and that the partners are now Charles A. Otis, '90 S. of New York, Philip B. Stewart, '86, and William P. Sargeant. In addition to its banking and brokerage business, the firm offers expert service in mining, and undertakes the management of mining properties.

'87—Ira C. Copley sailed February 10 with his family for a six months' tour of Europe. Mr. Copley will make a study of the manufacture and distribution of gas in the continental cities.

'87—On reporting for duty October 21, 1899, at Manila, Dr. Franklin A. Meacham was assigned to duty in General McArthur's Division as Brigade-Surgeon on the staff of General Joseph Wheeler, 1st Brigade. He served with this brigade during its advance north from Angeles to Dagapan, participating in many of its engagements. His address is, care Chief Surgeon, Department Pacific, Manila, P. I.

'87 T.S.—Prof. Edward S. Parsons has an article on Colorado College in the Congregationalist of February 22.

'88—George B. Fowler, formerly of Thompsonville, Conn., has formed a partnership in Detroit, Mich., with Charles S. McDonald, known as McDonald & Fowler. Mr. McDonald has a large practice and has had many years' experience in the law business.

'89—Gifford Pinchot spoke at Harvard Friday evening, March 2, on "Forestry as a Profession."

'90—A son was born February 12 to Mr. and Mrs. John Crosby.

'90—Samuel A. York of New Haven left on February 24 for Florida, where he will spend a few weeks.

'90 S.—Theodore D. Irwin has been appointed manager of the branch office of Post & Flagg, which has just been opened at 346 Broadway, New York City.

'91—Alfred M. Coats has been elected a member of the Executive Committee of the United States Golf Association.

'91—William F. Poole has moved from Chicago to Boston, where he is attorney for the Massachusetts Telephone and Telegraph Company at 15 Congress street.

'92—Dr. Walter R. Steiner has an article in the Johns Hopkins Hospital Bulletin for February entitled "Haemophilia in the Negro."

'92 S.—B. B. Boltwood delivered a lecture on "Liquid Air" on Wednesday of last week in North Sheffield Hall.

'93 S.—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Stoughton, February 20.

'94—W. R. Callendar was elected a member of the Admission Committee of the Rhode Island Yacht Club, at its annual meeting in Providence, February 26.

'94—Harry Brent Mackoy responded to the toast, "Building a Constitution," at the Washington's Birthday celebration of the Ohio Sons of the Revolution in Cincinnati, February 22. Later, he was elected Secretary of the Association.

'94 S.—F. D. Wanning is now with the Birmingham Iron Foundry, Birmingham, Conn.

'94 S.—Henry H. Holly sailed the first of last month to complete his studies in Architecture in Paris.

'94 S.—Sanford H. Wadhams is acting Assistant Surgeon in the United States Army at San Juan, Porto Rico.

'94 S.—Joseph H. Pratt, who graduated from Johns Hopkins University in '98, is stationed in the Boston City Hospital, where he is studying Bacteriology.

'94 S.—Edward H. Hart who has been representing several Connecticut firms in South Africa, has returned to his home in New Britain to await the settlement of the Boer war.

'95—Rev. George H. Thomas has been settled as rector of All Saints' Church, Minneapolis.

'95—George F. Truesdell has a poem in the current number of Scribner's entitled "Crafty Cupid."

'95—Roger S. Baldwin and Raymond S. White have formed a partnership for the practice of Law, under the firm name of Baldwin & White, with offices at Singer Building, 149 Broadway, New York.

'95 L.S.—George H. Huddy, Jr., was elected a member of the Admission Committee of the Rhode Island Yacht Club at its annual meeting held in Providence, February 26.

'95 T.S.—Charles S. Thayer has just come back from four years study in Germany, and is now pastor of Union Church, Providence, R. I.

'96—George L. Buist is recovering from an attack of grip.

'96—Neil B. Mallon will resign the management of the Newark (Ohio) Gas Light and Coke Co., about March 20 to engage in business in Cincinnati.

'96—Samuel Thorne, Jr., has just been admitted to the practice of law in New York, and is at present in the office of Stimson & Williams, 55 Liberty street.

'96—William G. Baker, Jr., has formed a partnership with Sewall S. Watts, for the transaction of a general banking business, under the firm name of Baker, Watts & Co., with offices at 2 South street, Baltimore, Md.

'96—Walter H. Clark of the law firm of Clark & Arnold, Hartford, Conn., has been appointed instructor in the course of Economic debates, to take the place of Prof. E. V. Reynolds, '80 S., who is taking a trip on the Caribbean Sea for his health.

'96—The marriage of Miss Ada E. Connett of St. Joseph, Mo., to Morris H. Reed, took place February 11.

After leaving Yale, Mr. Reed spent three years in the law department of the University of Michigan and is at present practicing that profession in St. Joseph, making a specialty of Railroad and Corporation Law. He is now with the St. Joseph & Grand Island and the Kansas City and Omaha Railway Companies. His home address is 1852 Clay street.

'97 S.—Mrs. F. L. Danforth of Buffalo, N. Y. announces the engagement of her daughter Grace to G. Barrett Rich, Jr.

'97 S.—On the death of Alexander Grant, a hardware merchant of Syracuse, N. Y., which occurred January 28, Robert J. Grant and his brother succeeded to the business under the name of Alexander Grant's Sons.

'98—Thomas M. James of Kansas City, Mo., has been in New York for the past month on business.

'98—N. A. Burr has been elected to the assistant editorship of the Yale Medical Journal.

'98—Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Borden have returned from the South and are living at 25 West 56th street, New York City.

'98—Hiram Bingham has been forced to give up his missionary work in the Sandwich Islands on account of his health and is now taking a course in Political Economy at the Leland Stanford University, California.

'98 M.S.—Dr. Alfred H. Thomas has opened an office at Greenridge, Staten Island, N. Y.

'99—Harold C. Cheney is in the educational department of Charles Scribner's Sons, New York.

'99—William G. Wallace, who is now taking a trip in Europe, intends to remain for the Paris Exposition.

'99—W. H. Field has been since January 1 at the publishing house of Frank A. Munsey, in the advertising department.

'99—William E. S. Griswold, who rowed on last year's University Eight, was in New Haven last week on business, and helped in coaching the crew candidates.

'99 S.—Richmond M. Graff of Pittsburgh, Penn., has just returned from a three months' carriage trip through the South.

'99 M.S.—Dr. Dean Foster began his term of service at the New Haven Hospital, March 1.

YALE NOTICES.

[Class and Association Secretaries are invited to contribute to this column.]

Class of 1875.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the graduation from Yale of the Class of 1875, Academic, will be celebrated at New Haven, next Commencement. The Class supper will be held on the evening of Tuesday, June 26. All arrangements are being made by the Special Committee, and printed circulars giving details will shortly be mailed to all living members of the Class, graduate and non-graduate. The Committee will welcome any information or suggestions, which should be directed to its Secretary, as below.

Special Committee on 25th Anniversary.

- John Patton, Chairman.
- Samuel R. Betts,
- Almet F. Jenks,
- Edward H. Rogers,
- Edward C. Smith,
- Edward W. Southworth,
- Edwin H. Weatherbee,
- Newell Martin, Secretary,
- 7 Nassau St., New York City.

Eighty-Five.

There will be a reunion of those members of the Class of Eighty-Five who are in and near New York, at the Yale Club, 17 Madison Square North, on Friday, March 23, at 7 o'clock.

Plans for our Quin-decennial will be discussed, and a large attendance will insure a good start for June.

Price of dinner will be $3.00, which please remit to Emil Schultze, Jr., 141 Broadway.

An early reply will be considered a favor. There will be no further notice.

- FRANK R. SHIPMAN,
- WILBUR L. CROSS,
- JOSEPH A. BLAKE,
- EMILE SCHULTZE, JR.
- Committee.*

Ninety Dinner.

There will be a reunion of the Class of Ninety at the Yale Club, 17 East 26th St., New York City, on Friday evening, March 9, 1900, at 7 p. m.. The charge for dinner will be $2.

Two similar reunions have been held in previous years, and have proved very enjoyable, about thirty men being present each time. It is expected that this will be even more successful as it will be the last meeting before our decennial in New Haven next June.

[Continued on page 23.]