

YALE ALUMNI NOTES.

Please report concerning yourself, facts which should be recorded in this column. Make report, also, about Yale men you know, and on matters, proper for record here, concerning which you have definite record. This will make the page of the greatest possible value. On request the Alumni Weekly will be glad to send postals to those who are in the way of getting, more or less often, Yale news and Yale personals.

'53—Edmund C. Stedman has retired from active business and will devote himself to literature. Mr. Stedman is working now to complete his "American Anthology," although he is not yet entirely recovered from a long and serious illness.

'58—Addison Van Name, the librarian of the University, was present at the annual dinner of the New York Library Club, held at the rooms of the Aldine Association, New York, March 8th.

'60—W. S. Keyes writes: "I had thought to give up all business, but I find myself more and variously occupied than ever before in my life. I have five mining law suits on hand, together with a mine, in Mexico to look after."

'60—Orlando Leach was one of the speakers at the celebration, March 6, at Brockton, Mass., of the fiftieth anniversary of the foundation of the Porter Evangelical Church. Mr. Leach recently gave the church a baptismal font in memory of his parents.

'60—The Buffalo Courier of recent date printed the following:

"To-day may be regarded with a special interest by the many warm friends of William Edward Foster, for it is the thirtieth anniversary of his association with the Buffalo Commercial, of which he has been long the chief editorial writer. A record of thirty years' assiduous devotion to journalism is in itself suggestive of almost immeasurable effort and of tireless industry. In point of continuous service on one newspaper, Mr. Foster is now among the oldest editors of the State. Time, however, it is pleasant to observe, has but touched him with kindly finger. Those familiar with his writings from day to day appreciate that his fine mentality is in its flower. While we have often differed from his expressed views on political and civic questions, and are likely to continue to do so, at this time we feel at liberty to say that in communication with the public through the columns of his paper he ever indicates the grace and generally the liberality of a true gentility. The Courier extends its congratulations to Mr. Foster with the hope that the years of his prosperity may multiply."

'63—Rev. Dr. Horace Bumstead of Atlanta, Ga., delivered an address in Hartford recently on topics connected with education in the South.

'64—William E. Barnett of New Haven, left March 10 for Pinehurst, N. C., to be gone several weeks.

'67—W. H. Moore informs the Class that the Tricentennial Record of the Class will be out shortly.

'67—The following members are residents of Washington, D. C.: Thomas Hedge, Frank Libbey, W. H. Morse and George P. Wetmore.

'68 S.—Henry S. Williams has an article in the current number of the American Journal of Science on "The Silurian-Devonian boundary in North America."

'69—Dr. Samuel D. Gilbert is being treated for a mastoid abscess in a private hospital in New York.

'70—The New Haven Chamber of Commerce has just printed in pamphlet form the address recently delivered before it, by Morris F. Tyler, on "The University as a Business Institution in New Haven." The address was printed in large part in the YALE ALUMNI WEEKLY.

'70—Rev. Edward S. Hume, M.A. has been elected a Fellow of Bombay University. He is the third American thus taken on the Governing Board or Corporation of the University. He has long been active in educational affairs, but had recently been brought into more especial prominence in connection with Professor Ladd, for whose lectures in the University and city he had made the arrangements.

'72—E. W. Cady has recently taken a position in the Library of Congress in the Copyright Department.

'74—Prof. Henry W. Farnam is now in Rome with his family; his address is 21 Via del Quirinale.

'76 S.—John Hays Hammond gave an informal talk Thursday morning, March 8, in the lecture room of the Geological Laboratory of the Johns Hopkins University, upon "The Mineral Resources of the Transvaal."

'77 S.—Prof. S. L. Penfield was elected a Fellow of the Geological Society of America at its twelfth annual meeting in December.

'77 L.S.—Hon. Nathaniel B. Walker was elected March 12, 1900, Mayor of Biddeford, Maine, on a "Citizens" ticket. He had the nomination of Republicans and Democrats and no opposing candidate.

Ex-'77—Dr. Joseph P. Cochran, who has been spending a year's vacation in the United States, from his missionary labors at Urmia, Persia, has returned to his duties.

'78—Edward L. Morse has removed from 1316 Conn. Ave. to 1605 New Hampshire, Washington, D. C.

'80—William R. Barbour of Denver, Colorado, will move to New York in April.

'81—Mr. and Mrs. George E. Ide, who are traveling abroad, are now in Egypt.

'84—Oliver McKee is connected with Clark's Company, Ltd., Publishers, whose place of business is 56 Ludgate Hill, E. C., London.

'84 L.S.—Prof. John Wurts, who has been ill for some time, was well enough on March 14 to go to New York for a few days. He expects to resume his work soon.

'85—Henry Fresenius, present City Treasurer of New Haven, is talked of as candidate for Mayor on the Democratic ticket.

'85—Dr. Edwin F. Norton, Principal of Haverling High School, and Superintendent of Schools in Bath, N. Y., has had $150 added to his salary for the coming year. Under his direction an additional school building of modern type is to be erected, a new course of study adopted and a training class for teachers established—all to be in operation by September 1, 1900.

'85 T.S.—J. D. Jones adds to his regular pastorate duties in Washington the gifts of an evangelist to neighboring churches.

'85 T.S.—W. J. Mutch, Ph.D. has recently published a catechism, entitled "Christian Teachings," which is meeting with marked favor.

'86 T.S.—Prof. Frank C. Porter has an article in the current issue of the New World, entitled, "The Ideals of Seminaries and the Needs of the Churches." Prof. Stevens, who is now in Berlin, will soon have an article in the Congregationalist on the same subject.

'87—R. H. Lewis, who was formerly Secretary and Assistant Treasurer of the Edward P. Judd Company, book-dealers in New Haven, gave up March 1, all his duties at the store. Mr. Lewis still retains, however, his interest in the company as a shareholder.

'87 S.—Dr. Leonard A. Jenkins, who was interested in the manufacture of "Nutrol," a new chemical product, has recently gone to Germany and organized a company for the production of this chemical. The company is called Klew & Company, manufacturing chemists.

'88—A second daughter was born March 15, to Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Tibbals.

Ex-'88 T.S.—Gerald Stanley Lee has an article in the current number of the New World on "The Sex-Conscious School in Fiction."

'80—James Gamble Rogers is the architect of the extensive buildings of the Chicago Institute, a new school for the education of children from the kindergarten through the academic grades, and for the training of teachers for their professional work.

'80—William H. Corbin is Secretary and Treasurer of the William H. Wiley & Son Company, organized early this year at Hartford from the old firm of William H. Wiley & Son. The company manufactures gaiters, leggings, wool robes and other such specialties. Its plant and offices have recently been enlarged.

'00—Dr. Stuart H. Rowe's book, "The Physical Nature of the Child and How to Study It," has met with such a favorable reception that Prof. Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia University has recommended to the Macmillans that the book be incorporated in their series, "The Teachers' Professional Library." The Macmillans have decided to do this, and the book will soon appear in this edition.

'91—The engagement has been announced of Miss Elizabeth N. Gabel of Leighton, Pa., to Ira E. Seidle.

'91 S.—Benedict Crowell is recovering from a severe attack of typhoid fever in Thomasville, Ga.

'92 S.—A daughter was born to Dr. and Mrs. Theodore C. Janeway, Mar. 5.

'92 S.—Robert V. Massey, who is a civil engineer with the Pennsylvania R. R. Co., is now stationed at Mifflintown, Penn.

'93—William Maffitt is now Assistant Treasurer of the Mercantile Trust Company of St. Louis.

'93—L. A. Welles will remove his law office to 258 Broadway, New York City, on April 1, 1900.

'93—T. C. Q. Trask is teaching at the Morris High School, New York City. His address is 189 Lenox Ave.

'93—Noah H. Swayne, 2d, has retired from the law firm of Swayne & Swayne of New York City and has accepted the Vice-Presidency of the Alabama & Georgia Iron Company at Cedartown, Georgia. The company operates several furnaces.

'93 S.—H. P. Ritchie, M.D., has formed a partnership with Dr. Archibald MacLaren, with offices at 105 Lowry Arcade, St. Paul, Minn.

'94—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. George B. B. Lamb, January 4.

'94 S.—Burton J. Lee has recently begun the practice of medicine with George M. Creevey, '93, at 53d St. and Madison Ave., New York City.

'94 L.S.—Richard H. Tyner has been recently appointed Assistant Prosecuting Attorney for New Haven.

'95—James A. Draper, Jr., has opened an office for the practice of medicine in Wilmington, Del.

'95 & '96—Lanier and McKee D. McKee have changed their address from the Yale Club of New York to The Cloister, corner 31st St. and Madison Ave.

'95—Clifford S. Cook is the Pittsburg representative of the American Car & Foundry Co. His address is 201 Bank of Commerce Building, Pittsburg, Pa.

'95—Arthur H. Eggleston has a letter, in a recent issue of the New London Day, protesting against the practice of allowing inexperienced and careless men to quote prominent men in the newspapers. The occasion of the letter is the misreporting of Professor Sumner by some man who had a right to be in the recitation room only in the capacity of a student.

'95 S.—The engagement is announced of Miss Gertrude B. Rowe of New York City to Harry T. Clifton of Washington, D. C.

'95 S. & '98 S.—John C. Greenway and Gilbert C. Greenway who have both recently undergone operations for appendicitis at the Presbyterian Hospital, New York, are recovering rapidly.

'96—William Wallace Chace has been admitted to the practice of law in New York State.

'96—Eliot Sumner has just been promoted to the position of Fireman in the Pennsylvania Railroad's practical railroad course for college graduates.

'96—Frank E. Wade, who was recently mustered out of the 203d New York Volunteer Infantry, has resumed the practice of law in Syracuse, N. Y., under the firm name of Wade & McKenzie.

'96 S.—Robert H. Perdue is now Advertising Manager of the Cleveland Leader, Cleveland, Ohio.

'96 S.—The marriage of Miss Louise Spencer Fitch to Lemuel R. Hopton will take place April 4, at the Church of the Redeemer, New Haven.

'97—The home of George W. Updike, 230 Newstead St., St. Louis, was recently burned.

'97—Ernest A. Wells has been elected President of the Johns Hopkins University Medical School Y. M. C. A.

'97—Albert B. Kerr has removed to Johnston Building, 30 Broad Street, New York, where he has opened an office for the general practice of law.

'97—The engagement has been announced of Miss Lila Lefferts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lefferts of Brooklyn, N. Y., to Charles M. Cooke, Jr.

'97—Chairman T. D. Seymour, in his report of the last year, to the American Institute of Archaeology, mentions especially the value of a discovery in Verona by Charles Upson Clark, that a certain manuscript is a palimpsest. He also mentions the discovery by Mr. Clark of several hitherto unsuspected fragments of the Itala or earliest known Latin version of the Scriptures.

'98—Samuel A. Marshall has been elected Treasurer of the Johns Hopkins University Medical School Y. M. C. A.

'98—J. F. Adams has recently had an article, entitled, "How Young Men get on at Yale," accepted by the New Voice of Chicago.

'98—The engagement of Miss Priscilla D. Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Barnes of New York, to Marshall J. Dodge, is announced.

'98—M. W. Ehrich has left Asiell & Co., bankers, New York City, and is now connected with the firm of B. M. Strauss & Co., Real Estate Brokers, Broadway and Houston St., New York.

'98 S.—The marriage of Miss Jennie L. Fuller to Zenas H. Sikes took place February 12. Mr. Sikes is a civil engineer of the Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company. Mr. and Mrs. Sikes will live in Grafton, Pa.

'99—William F. Whitehouse, Jr., is traveling in Northern Africa.

'99—J. W. Greene, Jr., who is attending the New York Law School, is now in Orlando, Fla., for his health. He expects to return to Brooklyn the latter part of this month.

[Continued on page 248.]

Ninety-Eight Class Book.

Members of the class of Ninety-Eight who would like a copy of their Class Book, can obtain the same, postpaid, by sending $2.00 to F. A. LORD, 159 Elm Street, New Haven, Conn.

A RULE AS TO TAILORS

Never select a tailor because his prices are low. This is a commandment quite as important as that laid down by Thomas Jefferson, in his "Ten Rules of Life:" "Never buy a thing because it is cheap." You may rely upon it, that the more you pay for an article of clothing, at a tailor's whose reputation is number one, the better will be the garment in all particulars—in closeness of fitting, excellence of workmanship and superior cloth and trimmings. It is obvious that the merchant who is allowed a liberal margin of profit, and who has keen competition in his own field, will look after that which he produces, under such circumstances, with a greater pride and a keener scrutiny than he would if doing a haphazard business.

ISAAC WALKER & SON

Tailors,

7 West 30th St.,

NEW YORK.