A COLLEGE PROFESSOR ON LIFE INSURANCE.

Professor GEORGE E. VINCENT, Yale, '85, of the University of Chicago, recently said:

"I believe that when we take an account of this century, and estimate the facts which have taken so important a part in its development, that the principle of Life Insurance and its remarkable extension in all departments of life, will be one of the great facts noted by future historians."

The Prudential has paid beneficiaries under its policies, to date over $42,700,000, which is an evidence of the vast amount of good the Company is doing for those surrounded with its protection.

NEW WESTMINSTER SCHOOL.

SCHOOL NEWS.

WESTMINSTER.

Westminster School, which has been known as one of the most successful Yale preparatories, since its founding, by William L. Cushing, Yale '72, at Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., twelve years ago, will be removed to Simsbury, Conn., next Fall. The change will be made to secure natural country environments, larger athletic sports and a greater distance from New York City.

A stock company, composed largely of the alumni of the School, was formed some months ago, for the purchase of land and the construction of buildings. The site selected includes a hundred and twenty acres of woodland and valleys and a high level plateau of fifty acres, overlooking the Farmington Valley. The school buildings, planned by Messrs. Trowbridge & Livingston of New York, will be located on this plateau.

Mr. Cushing, who will continue as Headmaster of the School, graduated from Yale in 1872, and after teaching classics for a year in the Hartford High School, accepted the rectorship of the Hopkins Grammar School, New Haven, a position which he held until 1885, when he went to Athens for two years' study. Returning to America, Mr. Cushing received an appointment as instructor in classics at Yale, but resigned the following year and founded Westminster School at its present home, Dobbs Ferry.

HOTCHKISS.

The candidates for battery positions on the baseball team were called out on the 12th. Trouble is expected in finding a good catcher, as both last year's men have left school. The schedule is as follows, all games, except that with St. Mark's, being played at Lakeville:

May 3d—Hotchkiss vs. Riverview Academy.

May 10th—Hotchkiss vs. Yale Freshmen.

May 12th—Hotchkiss vs. Williams Freshmen.

May 16th—Hotchkiss vs. Yale Law School.

May 19th—Hotchkiss vs. Columbia Freshmen.

June 2d—Hotchkiss vs. St. Paul's, Garden City.

June 5th—Hotchkiss vs. St. Marks.

ANDOVER.

Saturday, March 3, fifty-five members of the Senior class attended the matinee performance of "The Girl from Maxim's," at the Boston Museum and in the evening the class held its annual banquet at Young's Hotel. The faculty was represented by Messrs. G. D. Pettee and M. S. McCurdy. G. E. Merrill was toastmaster. Mr. Pettee and Mr. McCurdy spoke, and toasts were responded to by E. W. Baker, H. H. Stebbins, F. L. Collins, J. E. Sweet and T. A. Butkiewicz. F. E. Solomon, R. T. Davis, F. J. O'Connor, H. L. Wadsworth, L. P. Reed and T. D. Thatcher spoke extemporaneously.

One Case of Varioloid.

The last case of "newspaper small-pox," that of W. D. Brennan of St. Paul, Minn., has been diagnosed as measles. This leaves one man sick with what is supposed to be varioloid, Rufus Parks, Jr., 1901 S., of Washington, D. C. He was taken ill Friday last at the Colony, 17 Hillhouse Ave., and as the doctors were uncertain in their diagnosis, Mr. Parks was isolated on the top floor of the Colony. The disease is probably varioloid. G. W. Perkins, the Scientific School Freshman, the first suspected case, which proved to be varioloid, has recovered and will soon return to College.

On Monday morning in Chapel, President Hadley spoke to the students, assuring them that every possible means had been taken to prevent the spread of the suspected disease, and advised them to be vaccinated at once as a precaution. He added that the College authorities felt there was no danger, and that the men had better go on with their work unconcerned and not leave the city.

The Yale Golf team has arranged a match with the Hartford Golf Club, to be played on the latter's grounds April 28. It will be the first match of the year.
