

YALE OBITUARIES.

Mr. Cady was born in Hartford, August 20, 1877 and prepared for Yale at Andover. He was a member of the Yale track team and belonged to the He Boule and Delta Kappa Epsilon societies. He was highly respected by his Class for his character and beloved by a very large number.

Mr Cady was a brother of Ernest H. Cady, '05 S.

At a very large meeting of Mr. Cady's classmates in Dwight Hall, March 26, these resolutions were adopted:

Inasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God in His Providence to remove from us our beloved friend and classmate, Charles Washburn Cady, deeply endeared to all of us by his uniform spirit of unassuming kindness and sincerity, be it

Resolved, that we, his classmates, extend to his family our deepest sympathy, and that we wear a badge of mourning sixty days in mark of our esteem and affection for him, whom Infinite Wisdom hath taken, and be it

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be presented to his family, and printed in the College papers.

Rev. Dr. George Leon Walker, '70 Hon.

Rev. Dr. George Leon Walker, pastor emeritus of the Center Church of Hartford, Conn., and a former member of the Yale Corporation, died at his home in Hartford, Wednesday, March 14, of pneumonia, after a very short sickness.

Dr. Walker was born in Rutland, Vt., April 30, 1830 and received his early education in the public schools of Brattleboro. Although prevented by ill-health from attending college, he continued his studies outside of working hours and in 1857 was licensed, by the Rutland Association, to preach. After some time spent in the Andover Theological Seminary as "resident licentiate" and at the State Street Church, Portland, Maine, he came to New Haven and took charge of the First Congregational Church in 1868. Returning poor health compelled him to give up his work and from 1873 until 1879 he travelled extensively abroad. In the latter year he accepted a call to the First (Center) Church, Hartford, and held the pastorate till 1891, when he resigned to devote himself to literary pursuits. In August, 1896, while at his Summer home in Brattleboro, Dr. Walker was stricken with apoplexy, which deprived him of the power of speech and the use of the right side of his body.

Dr. Walker was appointed to the Corporation of Yale, Nov. 1, 1877, and resigned from that position last year. Yale gave him the degree of D.D. in 1870. Middlebury College, Vt., had conferred the degree of M.A. on him in 1858. He is survived by a son, Prof. Williston Walker, and by a brother and a sister.

Yale Dramatic Association.

The Yale Dramatic Association, which was organized last month, has decided to produce, within the next month, an old English piece of the fifteenth century, "The Shepherd's Play."

The men are now working on their parts and when rehearsals begin they will have the benefit of some coaching from members of the English Department.

The officers of the Association are: President, Thomas B. Clarke, Jr., 1900; Vice-President, H. W. Fisher, L.S.; Secretary, M. Moore, 1902; Treasurer, E. A. Strong, 1900 S.; Executive Committee, H. D. Wescott, Jr., 1901, and the above named officers; Auditing Committee, President Clarke and A. L. Ellis, M.S. The membership, which has been limited to thirty-five, is full. A great deal of talent was brought out in the trials.

The TenEyck prize speaking will be held April 5, in College Street Hall. The change is made from Battell Chapel, where it has formerly been held, because there appears to be no necessity for so large a hall.

Savin Rock for the Senior Supper.

The Yale News contained a very spicy set of letters a week or so ago on the subject of Savin Rock. A member of the Senior Class, Mr. M. P. Gould, protested, in a long communication to the News, against the announcement that Nineteen Hundred's Senior Supper would be held at Hill's Homestead. He called Savin Rock the worst kind of a place from a moral standpoint, and said the committee was elected on an anti-Savin Rock platform. Defenders of the committee and of Savin Rock arose, and the fact was brought out that the committee, which is composed of unusually good men, had tried to find some other place large enough but had failed. In spite of a determined minority who say they will not go to a class supper at Savin Rock under any circumstances, the majority of the class is strongly behind the committee, and it is said that it will be a record-breaking supper, in point of attendance.

Yale Y. M. C. A. Elections.

The annual meeting of the Yale Young Men's Christian Association took place Monday evening in Dwight Hall. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Paul D. Moody, 1901; Vice-Presidents, John F. Ferry, 1901 S., and Edwin Allen Stebbins, 1902; Recording Secretary, F. W. Moore, 1903; Undergraduate Treasurer, James H. Wear, 1901. Henry B. Wright, '98, was reappointed General Secretary for next year. The following members of the Graduate Committee were present: Richard C. Morse, '62; James B. Reynolds, '84, and William S. Sloane, '95.

Universal Athletics.

That is the goal and—it is pleasant to say—the present tendency of the changes in athletic policy in the great universities. Over four hundred men were on the water at one time last season at Harvard. To-day the streets of New Haven are fairly alive with athletes on their runs. It's fine. One of the incidental results of Universal Athletics is to more thoroughly acquaint every university and college man with the name of "A slice to a pipe-ful" is one reason why Old English Curve Cut pipe tobacco is so popular. The curved tin box that fits any pocket is another reason. No other pipe tobacco has ever made as many friends in so short a time.

"It disappoints no one."

A trial box will be sent to any one anywhere on receipt of ten cents in stamps. Address Old English Department, The American Tobacco Co., 111 Fifth Avenue, New York City. All dealers sell it.
