YALE NOTICES.

[Class and Association Secretaries are invited to contribute to this column.]

The Ninety S. Decennial.

The Decennial Committee of Ninety Sheff. are anxious that as many of the Class as possible should be present at the reunion June 26, and ask that every man who intends to come, write to his friends and urge them to come also. They also ask that all members of the Class answer the circular, in order that the Secretary may be able to make up the Class Record, only about half of the Class having been heard from so far. The following men have expressed their intention of returning. Of thirty-two replies all but six are coming:

J. Alling.	P. Nash.
G. P. Bissell.	A. W. Ogden.
G. H. Blakeslee.	C. A. Otis.
H. B. Cheney.	R. E. Peck.
J. P. Cheney.	J. F. Pennell.
H. G. Day.	W. S. Post.
J. DuBois.	C. T. Richmond.
A. W. Evans.	C. B. Shepard.
R. S. Goodwin.	W. A. Simms.
Neil Gray.	W. T. Spencer.
F. L. Lawton.	F. C. Strong.
E. Lentillon.	A. M. Turner.
C. E. McMichael.

Ninety-Five S. Dinner.

The annual Ninety-Five Scientific dinner of the New York Alumni will be held at the Yale Club on April 28th next, at 8 o'clock P. M. All Ninety-Five Sheff. men are cordially invited. The subscription of $2.00 per man may be sent to J. Willet Hall, Yale Club, 17 East 26th Street, New York City.

Ninety-One's Reunion.

A very successful dinner of the members of the Class of Ninety-One living in and near New York, was held at the Yale Club in that city on the evening of the 18th instant.

This was the first meeting of the Class (excepting of course the regular reunions in New Haven) since the Autumn after graduation, and the fact that twenty-eight men were present convinced every one that the event should be made an annual one.

Those present were: Barnes, B. Brown, W. E. Billings, Bunce, Brewster, Cooley, C. S. Davis, Dean, Estill, Green, Hagar, T. S. Hart, Hoppin, Howell, Howland, Isham, Johnson, Kingsbury, Knox, Lee, McLearn, Oastler, Pangborn, Plummer, St. John, Swartwout, Weed and Wright.

Invitation to Yale Men at Exposition.

The general association of students of Paris has organized, in connection with the Paris Exposition and the Second Congress of International Federation of students, a series of meetings or entertainments of which the program will be given later. The students of the world are invited and a special and cordial invitation is sent to Yale men to attend. The meetings will be held during the first week in August.

For American Students in Germany.

The following letter has been received at New Haven:

AMERICAN COLONY, Walkemühlenweg 17, Göttingen, Germany.

March 30, 1900.

Dear Sir—I desire to call your attention to the organization known as the American Colony, at Göttingen, composed of American students and travelers who come in such great numbers to enjoy the varied opportunities afforded by the University, the country, and the purity of the German, here. It is the object of the Colony to afford every assistance in its power to new students in becoming acquainted with the language, customs, and institutions of the country, especially at the start, and in still keeping in touch with their country and their countrymen.

I would be glad to learn the names of any students from Yale who intend to reside in Germany, but especially in Göttingen, during the coming Summer or later, and shall be pleased to render any
