

YALE ALUMNI NOTES.

'49—Ex-President Timothy Dwight made the prayer and Henry B. Wright, '98, delivered an address at Yale Hall, Sunday evening, May 6.

'53—F. Wayland Fellowes has been elected Vestryman of St. John's Episcopal Church, New Haven.

'53—The Rev. Kinsley Twining spoke at the alumni dinner of the Divinity School at New Haven, May 16.

'60—H. L. Johnson, after a six weeks' visit to California, is enjoying a month's fishing in the Adirondacks. He will be at the Class reunion in June.

'60—At the present time, for the reunion of the Class of Sixty, thirty-four have written about attendance upon this reunion; twenty-two have promised to be present, six are in doubt, seven cannot come; twenty-three have not yet been heard from.

'63—Professor William G. Sumner of the University delivered an address on "Trusts and Tariffs" at the annual banquet of the New England Free Trade League in Boston, May 4.

'65—The Rev. Henry A. Stimson of New York City has just been appointed Southworth Lecturer at the Andover Theological Seminary for next year. He will deliver a course of six lectures during the Winter on "The Church of To-Day."

'68—Dr. William T. Bacon, the new President of the Hartford County Medical Society, and Mrs. Bacon sailed for Europe April 27, to be absent until July.

'71—Charles Hopkins Clark of Hartford, Conn., returned home May 4, after a trip through the South and West.

'71—The Rev. and Mrs. Nathan H. Whittlesey have returned to their home in New Haven, after an absence of six months, spent in traveling on account of Dr. Whittlesey's health.

'72—Rev. Charles O. Day, of Germantown, N. Y., Secretary of the Education Society, is in Utah and New Mexico, in the interests of the Society. He will return about the 12th of May.

'73 T.S.—Rev. E. P. Salmon, Beloit, Wis., will open his Summer resort, "The Old Mission," Madeline Island, Lake Superior, July 15. "The Old Mission" is a favorite resort for Wisconsin Congregational ministers and educators.

'74—Charles F. Joy, Congressman from the Eleventh District of Missouri, was renominated by the Republican Convention held May 5.

'74—Professor Edward L. Curtis of the Yale Divinity School will sail for Europe June 16, with his family. They will spend the Summer there.

'75 T.S.—The Beloit Convention of Congregational ministers and churches will hold its fifty-ninth annual meeting with the Congregational church in Delavan, Wis., of which Rev. S. P. Wilder is pastor, May 15 and 16.

'76 T.S.—Rev. William T. Hutchins will give up his pastorate of the First Congregational Church, in Indian Orchard, Mass., August 1.

'76 T.S.—The Rev. Charles H. Oliphant, D.D., will preach the Baccalaureate Sermon to the graduating class at Phillips Andover Academy, June 27.

'77 S.—Professor James H. Brewster will have charge of the courses in law at the Summer session of the University of Michigan, which begins June 25.

'77 L.S.—Carlton F. Drake, after spending several weeks at the Marlin Hot Springs, where he has been under treatment for rheumatism, has returned to his home at Austin, Texas, much improved, though he has not entirely recovered.

'78—The Rev. Charles F. Carter has an article in the Congregationalist for May 3, on "The Congress of Religions."

'79—Mr. Frederick W. Williams of the Yale Faculty will sail for Europe June 9, where he will spend the Summer.

'80 T.S.—Rev. W. W. Leete spoke at the dinner of the Divinity School Alumni at New Haven, Wednesday, May 16.

'81—Rev. Edwin E. Aiken, Missionary at Tientsin, China, spoke at the Alumni dinner of the Divinity School at New Haven, May 16.

'81—Professor Benjamin W. Bacon, of the University, is at Lookout Mountain, Tenn., for his health, which has been greatly improved. He will return to New Haven about the first of June and will go to his new home on Edwards Street, which has just been completed. He will resume his classes in the Divinity School next Fall.

'83—Edward N. Dingley is a delegate from Michigan to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia.

'84 T.S.—At the session of the American Social Science Association in Washington, May 9, Professor E. Hershey Sneath, of the University, delivered an address on "The Aesthetic Factor in Education."

'85—Professor Wilbur L. Cross has been conducting the courses in English, of Professor Lounsbury, at the Sheffield Scientific School, during the latter's recent illness.

'85—Frank B. Brandegec was elected an alternate from the Third District of Connecticut to the National Republican Convention. His speech, arguing for the acceptance by the State Convention, for the minority report of the Committee on Credentials, in disputed election cases, has been called the feature of the convention.

'87—W. R. H. Trowbridge, Jr., has resigned his position in the West Indian branch of the Colonial Bank and removed to London, England, where he is engaged in the publication of a new book. He is also a regular contributor to several of the London weeklies.

'87—George E. Hill, Secretary of the Class of Eighty-Seven, reports that S. E. Cobb, O. G. Jennings, W. L. Phelps and J. R. Sheffield, have been appointed as the Quindecennial Committee, and that Lenox Hall has been engaged for the meeting place of the reunion. Mr. Hill also reports on the progress of the Bennetto Fund, which, at the date of April 15, amounted to $3,050.

'88 S.—Charles E. Curtis and Philip P. Wells, '89, sailed Thursday, May 10, on the Hamburg American Line, for a month's bicycling in England and Scotland.

'89—Herbert A. Smith, who has been studying the past Winter at the Sarbonne, is now traveling in Italy and will return to America during the first week in July.

'89—Robert L. Luce, '89; Seward Davis, '91, and Francis H. Griffin, '92, formed a partnership May 1, for the practice of law at 7 Wall St., New York City, under the firm name of Luce, Davis & Griffin.

'89—Rev. E. L. Parsons, who has been rector of Trinity Church, Menlo Park, California, has become rector of St. Matthew's Church at San Mateo, Cal.

'91—Samuel C. Shaw, '91, and Edward K. Nicholson, '96, have formed a partnership for the practice of law at Bridgeport, Conn., under the firm name of Shaw & Nicholson, May 11, 1900.

'92—Charles L. Wooding has just resigned his position as Librarian of the Public Library at Bristol, Conn.

'92—George R. Montgomery delivered an address at the commencement exercises of the Yale Divinity School, May 16, on "Schools and Prophecy."

'92 S.—The marriage of Miss Mabel Filley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Filley of St. Louis, Mo., to Edward H. Simmons took place April 30, at 7 P. M. W. D. Simmons, '90, was best man and among the ushers were Albert DeW. Erskine, '94 S., and George W. Simmons, 1900.

'93—Geo. B. Spalding, Jr., was approved in examination and licensed to preach by the Syracuse Presbytery, May 7.

'93 T.S.—Dr. W. J. Moulton of the Yale Faculty contributed the article on "The Passover" to Vol. III of "Hasting's Dictionary of the Bible," which will appear in July.

'94—Miss Jeanette Searle, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Searle, and Charles Henry Hall were married at the Church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, May 9. Rev. G. W. Smith, President of Trinity College, and Rev. Dr. McConnell, Rector of the church, officiated. F. S. Burwell, '94, was best man, and Miss Caroline F. Searle was maid of honor.

'94 S.—The engagement has been announced of Miss Grace Salstonstall Lee, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Northam Lee, of 114 West 78th St., New York City, to Frederick Allen Johnson.

'96—Frederick Coonley has received an appointment as Interne in the King's County Hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y.

'96—George L. Buist has accepted the position of Interne in the Brooklyn City Hospital.

'96—The marriage of Miss Edith Burr, daughter of Dr. Charles Ray Palmer, '55, to Arthur Ellsworth Foote, took place at the United Church, New Haven, Saturday, May 5. The Rev. Theodore T. Munger, '51, performed the ceremony and Assistant Professor Harry B. Jepson, '93, was at the organ. John Sargent, '94 S., was the best man and the ushers were: Harry J. Fisher, '96; Walter S. Hoyt, '96; George H. Nettleton, '96; Thomas B. Wells, '96, and Henry L. Foote, ex-1902.

'97—W. S. K. Wetmore, who has spent some months in Panama, United States of Columbia, has just returned to Washington.

'97—William D. Beach delivered an address at the commencement exercises of the Divinity School, May 16, on "The Element of Vitality in Preaching."

'97—The marriage of Miss Messenger Merriman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Friend E. Merriman, of Dunmore, Pa., and Mr. Francis Martin Lynch, took place at St. Peter's Cathedral, Scranton, Pa., April 25. The best man was E. L. Smith, '97. T. M. Connor, '97; B. J. Lynch, and L. A. Lynch, '99, were the ushers. Mr. and Mrs. Lynch will live at 637 Quincy Avenue, Scranton, Pa.

'97 T.S.—A son was born to Rev. and Mrs. B. M. Wright of Orange, Conn., Sunday, May 6.

'97 T.S.—Rev. Wallace M. Short is the pastor of the Congregational Church in Evansville, Wis. This is his first and only pastorate. He has read several able papers before ministerial gatherings in the past three years.

'98 M.S.—Dr. Harry G. Watson removed May 1, to his new offices at 39 Seventh St., between Second and Third Avenues, New York City.

'99—Frederick Webster is studying law in an office in Galveston, Tex.

'99—The correct address of Thomas S. Maffitt is 3501 Washington Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

'99 T.S.—The engagement is announced of Miss Florence M. Coleman of Denver, Col., and Rev. Ernest E. Day, pastor of Open Door Congregational Church, Minneapolis, Minn.

Ex-'99 S.—Miss Harriet Worcester Kittredge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Henry Kittredge of Oakland, California, was married to Frank Fowler Baldwin, April 26, at Oakland, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin are now in New York at the Holland House, where they will remain for two weeks.

YALE NOTICES.

[Class and Association Secretaries are invited to contribute to this column.]

Ninety-Four S. Sexennial.

Preparations for the celebration of Ninety-Four Sheff. Sexennial are nearly completed and the committee reports that a large number of the Class will return. Some new features have been added since Triennial, to make the affair enjoyable.

The Second Connecticut Regiment band, augmented by the Regimental Drum and Bugle Corps, will furnish music at the Field, where the Class will attend the Harvard game in a body, and also during the banquet, which will be held in Warner Hall. As this band enjoys the reputation of being the finest in the State, further comment is unnecessary. Photos of the Class in reunion dress will be taken at the Field by Phelps. The business meeting will be held in North Sheffield Hall at 10 A. M., June 26, when the matter of attending the Bi-Centennial as a Class will be discussed.

The Committee is unable to locate the following men and will be greatly obliged to anyone furnishing addresses:

- Leverett S. Baldwin.
- Chas. S. Benson.
- John M. Boden.
- Edwin H. Dennison.
- Harold S. Johnson.
- H. Lee Joyce.
- Joseph Lentillon.
- Marshall G. Linn.
- Geo. B. Seeley.
- Lewis B. Wilson.
- Winslow Mallery.
- Wm. DeWitt Mitchell.
- Fred. W. Varker.
- John Graham Wickham.
- Harry Worthen.
- James Miller.
- Fred L. Olmstead.
- Fred B. Mechling.

A list of the men who will attend will be published later.

HENRY BREWER.
JOHN SARGENT.
H. P. HOTCHKISS.
Committee, Box 61,
New Haven.

At a meeting of the University hockey team held April 23, Alfred Conkling Coxe, Jr., 1901 of Utica, N. Y., was elected captain for 1900-1901. Caps and watch charms were given to the men who played in the intercollegiate games.

.STUDEBAKER.

BROADWAY, COR. PRINCE ST., N. Y.

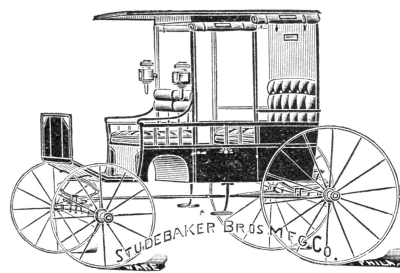

WM. R. INNIS, MANAGER.

Carriage Builders

LARGE VARIETY.

CORRECT APPOINTMENTS.

UNEXCELED WORKMANSHIP.

No. 1209. Station Wagon.

LIGHT WEIGHT. REASONABLE PRICE.
WELL MADE. FINE FINISH.

PRINCIPAL EVENTS AT

Branford Driving Park,

BRANFORD, CONN.

Decoration Day, May 30th.

2 HARNESS RACES 2

$500.00—IN PURSES—$500.00

PROFESSOR WELCH'S WHIPPET RUNNING DOGS

In Flat and Hurdle Racing, and

A BAND CONCERT.

The Driving Park is an hour's drive from New Haven Green.