

YALE ALUMNI NOTES.

'59—Col. Henry M. Boies has just returned to his home in Scranton, Pa., from a trip in Puerto Rico.

'61—Dr. Francis R. Schmucker is at Atlantic City recovering from an illness.

'62—Dr. William Dexter Anderson, whose office has been at 150 Temple St., New Haven, for the past thirty years, has removed to 1239 Chapel St. His old house will be the site of the new Y. M. C. A. building.

'69—Mr. and Mrs. John C. Grant of Chicago will get o their Summer home in Maine, early in June.

'69—Eli Whitney was elected President of the New Haven Horticultural Society at a reorganization meeting of the Society, May 14.

'69—At the annual meeting of the Council of the Archaeological Institute of America held May 12 in New York, the report of Professor Rufus B. Richardson, Director of the American School for Classical Study at Athens, was read, showing the School to be a flourishing condition.

'74—Ansley Wilcox is presiding over the Commission appointed by Governor Roosevelt, before whom the case of District Attorney Gardiner of New York is being tried.

'75—The Rev. William R. Richards, D.D., of Plainfield, N. J., will occupy the college pulpit at Williams College, Sunday, June 3.

'78—Philip W. Moen sailed from Boston May 23, on the Dominion liner New England, for Europe. Mrs. Moen and their three children will accompany him. They will spend most of the Summer in Scotland, and may visit the Paris Exposition.

'78 L.S.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Colley of Waterbury, Conn., sailed for a four months' trip through Europe early in May.

'80—Col. Norris G. Osborn has been elected a delegate from St. John's Episcopal Church, New Haven, to the Diocesan Convention.

'82—Mr. and Mrs. William Pollock of Pittsfield, Mass., returned from Europe about the middle of this month.

'82—Frank R. Gallaher of Essex, Conn., sailed for Europe May 16, on the Oceanic. He is a member of the Connecticut State Sewerage Commission and goes abroad to study the question of sewage disposal in Great Britain and on the Continent.

'83—The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman D. Thacher of Nordhoff, Cal., died the middle of April.

'84 M.S.—Dr. Henry L. Swain of New Haven has been elected President of the American Laryngological Association.

'84 M.S.—Professor Oliver T. Osborne represented the Yale Medical School at the National Medicine Convention held recently in Washington, D. C.

'85—Charles S. Dodge sailed on the St. Louis, May 2, for a trip abroad.

'86—Mr. and Mrs. Sidney M. Colgate of New York are at Bernardsville, N. J., where they will spend the Summer.

'86—Stanford T. Crapo was elected a Director of the Pere Marquette Railroad at a recent meeting of the stockholders.

'86—Mr. and Mrs. James W. Lee, Jr., who have been spending the Winter in Nassau, have returned to their home in Cleveland, O.

'86 S.—Harrie S. Leonard has recently been elected Assistant Treasurer of the Winchester Repeating Arms Company of New Haven.

'88—Bernard C. Steiner has edited a recent publication of the Maryland Historical Society entitled "Early Maryland Poetry."

'88—Elbert R. Tillinghast is on his way home after a trip of several months spent in California for the interests of the Provident Saving's Life Assurance Co., with which he is connected.

'89—Robert Treat Platt of Portland, Oregon, was in New Haven last week.

'89—George W. Woodruff has been engaged to coach the University of Pennsylvania Football Team for another season.

'89 Ph.D.—Professor Frank K. Sanders of Yale will deliver the Commencement address at Knox College, Galesburg, Ill., on June 10.

'90—Dr. William C. Lusk sailed for Europe, May 17.

'91—A son was born May 10, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Brown of Pittsburg.

'91 S.—Brown Caldwell is at present representing the Sargent Company of Chicago and his present address is 1314 Havemeyer Building, New York City.

'92—James A. Turnbull was appointed Actuary of the Connecticut General Life Insurance Company, at the annual meeting held May 1.

'92—Frank Julian Price sailed for Europe April 28, by the Holland-American Line, for a business trip of five or six weeks. He will spend one week in Paris at the Exposition.

'92 S.—Arthur J. Slade has been appointed First Sergeant of Troop I, Squadron A, N. G. N. Y.

'92 S.—Percy T. Walden and Harry W. Foote, '95 S., are taking courses in Chemistry at Munich, Germany, and will return to New Haven next Fall.

'92 S.—Charles H. Nichols and Edward E. Minor, '96 S., both of New Haven, have recently been elected Associate Members of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

'93—William Maffitt has been made Secretary of the newly formed Mercantile Trust Company of St. Louis, Mo.

'93—George T. Slade was appointed General Manager of the Delaware Valley & Kingston Railway Company, May 9, in charge of all departments except the Accounting Department, with headquarters at Dunmore, Pa.

'94—The marriage of Miss Mabel Bond to Charles N. Loveland will take place at Morristown, N. J., June 7. H. B. MacRoy, '94, will be best man.

'94 S.—Invitations have been sent out for the marriage of Miss Alice Earle Barrows, daughter of Mr. Roswell Storrs Barrows, of Jamaica Plains, Mass., to Robert T. Fowler, which will take place at the bride's home May 24. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Fowler will start on their wedding tour reaching San Francisco June 13, where they will sail for Auckland, New Zealand, where Mr. Fowler will be stationed for three years.

'95—William M. Richards has been coaching the Track Team at Bowdoin College this Spring.

'95—The May number of the Harvard Law Review contains an article on "The Significance of the Hay-Pauncefote Convention," by Charles Cheney Hyde.

'95—William Sloane has sailed for a short trip to the Paris Exposition and will return in time for the marriage of Francis B. Harrison, '95, at whose wedding, June 7, he will be an usher.

'95—The marriage of Miss Mary Crocker, daughter of the late Charles F. Crocker of San Francisco, to Francis B. Harrison will take place June 7, at Tuxedo, N. Y. Frank L. Polk, '94, will be best man and Archibald C. Harrison, '98, G. Morris, '98, Arthur B. Shepley, '95, William Sloane, '95, and Allan A. Robbins, '93 S., will be ushers.

'95 S.—Charles L. F. Robinson, Rear-Commodore of the New York Yacht Club, is now cruising in the Adriatic Sea on his steam yacht.

'95 S.—The marriage of Miss Harriet Wooster of Albany to Edgar A. Vander Veer will take place at noon, June 5, at the First Presbyterian Church, Albany. Among the ushers will be A. Vander Veer, Jr., 1900.

'95 S.—The marriage of Miss Lucy S. Welles to Paul B. Belin took place at Scranton, Pa., April 21. Among the ushers were James Terry, '95 S.; C. H. Welles, Jr., '99, and F. L. Belin, 1901 S. C. A. Belin, '99, was best man.

'96—D. C. Vaill will sail for Europe in June.

'96—Sherman Day has recently been appointed Corporal in Troop 3, Squadron A, N. G. N. Y.

'96—M. D. McKee has gone to Washington, D. C., to make preparations for his intended trip to Cape Nome.

'96—David Stuart has been made a Corporal of Troop I, Squadron A, National Guard of New York State.

'96—The engagement has just been announced of Miss Mary Elizabeth Willis Munger, daughter of Rev. Dr. T. T. Munger, '51, to John C. Adams.

'96 S.—The engagement is announced of Miss Grace Holt, daughter of George C. Holt, '66, of New York, to Ralph Duryea Reed.

'96 S.—Robert A. Bright, Instructor at Haverford College Grammar School, will conduct a party of Phillips Andover students through Europe this Summer.

'96 S.—Dr. Holmes C. Jackson, Assistant in Physiological Chemistry in the Sheffield Scientific School, intends to sail for Europe July 14, to spend a year in research in the German laboratories.

'97—George B. Cutten addressed the general religious meeting of Yale University, May 13.

'97—W. S. K. Wetmore, who has spent some months in Panama, United States of Columbia, has returned to Washington.

'97—Henry S. Coffin spoke on "The American Presbyterian Conception of the Church," at the graduating exercises of the Union Theological Seminary in New York on May 15.

'97 S.—George Langford has recovered sufficiently from his injury to go to Kansas City, where he is now staying.

'97 S., and '98—Colby M. Chester, Jr., has resigned from Squadron A, National Guard, State of New York, and has accepted a commission in the Twelfth Regiment.

'97 L.S.—G. Foster Sanford has made preparations to go abroad June 1, with the intention of competing at the athletic contests at the Paris Exposition.

'98—C. E. Merrill, Jr., has been admitted to membership in the publishing firm of Maynard, Merrill & Co., 29 East 19th St., New York.

'98—Abner P. Hayes has resigned his position with the Pennsylvania Railroad at Pittsburg, and will enter the Yale Law School in September.

'98 S.—A. Seton Post, Jr., has given up his position with A. D. Juillard & Company and is now a Credit Clerk of the Merchants' National Bank, 42 Wall St., New York City.

'98—Archibald C. Harrison is in the office of William Salomon, Chairman of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Reorganization Committee. His business address is 2 Wall St., New York City.

'98 S.—Morrison B. Young leaves June 1, for Cripple Creek, Col., where he intends to study mining.

'98 S.—Harold E. Carpenter, who is connected with the Pittsburg Steel and Iron Works, is spending a few weeks with his father at his home in Willimantic, Conn.

'99—F. A. Gorham, Jr., of Grand Rapids, Mich., is traveling in the East on business and was in New Haven, Wednesday, May 9.

'99—The engagement has just been announced of Miss Elsie French, daughter of Mrs. Frances O. French of New York, to Alfred G. Vanderbilt.

'99—The marriage of Miss Mary Brooks of Cleveland, Ohio, to Harrison G. Otis, will take place in Cleveland.

[Continued on page 335.]

Isaac Walker & Son
7 West 30th Street
New York

Importers of Finest Cloths

Shetlands Kerseys
Vicunas Chevots
Meltons Cassmeres
Worsteds

...Makers of Men's Clothes...

Specialties

Shooting } Driving } Coats	* * * * *	fancy } Hunting } Waistcoats
Golf } Waistcoats	* * * * *	Knickerbocker } Breeches
	* * * * *	Yachting } Suits
	* * * * *

Club and Society Insignias

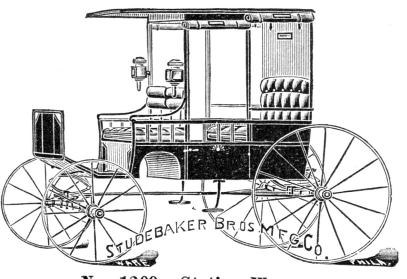

* * * * *

You are cordially invited to inspect our stock which is now complete.

.STUDEBAKER.
BROADWAY, COR. PRINCE ST., N. Y.
WM. R. INNIS, MANAGER.

Carriage Builders

LARGE VARIETY. CORRECT APPOINTMENTS.
UNEXCELED WORKMANSHIP.

No. 1209. Station Wagon.

LIGHT WEIGHT. REASONABLE PRICE.
WELL MADE. FINE FINISH.

NEXT WEDNESDAY--DECORATION DAY
→ OPENING DAY ←

Branford Driving Park,
BRANFORD, CONN.

Two exciting Harness Races for 2.50 and 2.30 Class.
$500.00 in Purses.

"QUEEN OF RINGS," 2.14½, the Fastest mare in the World for her age and inches, will endeavor to establish the track record for 1900.

PROF. WELCH'S WHIPPET DOGS.
PROF. G. F. LUTZ, Champion Amateur Bicyclist, and A BAND CONCERT.

Admission to Park, 50c. Grand Stand, 25c.