YALE ALUMNI NOTES.

'29—The Hon. Leman W. Cutler of Watertown, Conn., one of Yale's oldest living graduates, is the sole survivor of the Connecticut General Assembly of 1836.

'36—Rev. Austin Isham spent the Winter of 1899-1900 in New London, Conn., with his son-in-law.

'36—Rev. Austin Isham, who has been settled as a minister in Roxbury, Conn., for nearly fifty years has been spending the Winter with relatives in New London.

'48—Rev. Henry M. Parsons has resigned from the pastorate of the Knox Presbyterian Church of Toronto, Canada, and has become pastor emeritus after twenty years' service.

'56—Chauncey M. Depew has an article in the May 26 number of Harper's Weekly on "Our Future Colonial Policy."

'58—Professor Addison Van Name of the Yale Library spoke at the Spring meeting of the Connecticut Library Association, at Stratford, Conn., May 23.

'59—Rev. Joseph H. Twichell of Hartford, Conn., was elected President of the Third Army Corps, Veteran Association, at Gettysburg, Pa., May 22.

'60—Dr. Wm. H. Hale went to Norfolk, Va., to view the eclipse as special correspondent of the New York Commercial Advertiser.

'61—The Knickerbocker Press of New York has recently issued a small edition, privately printed, of the Diary of David McClure, Doctor of Divinity, 1748-1820, with notes by Franklin B. Dexter.

'65—Rev. Henry A. Stimson has an article in the June number of the Forum entitled "The Preëminent Profession—A Rejoinder."

'66—The Rev. Charles M. Southgate of Auburndale, Mass., was, May 30, re-elected to the Board of Trustees of the Hartford Theological Seminary for a term of three years.

'67—The Hon. George Peabody Wetmore has been chosen by the Republican caucus of the Rhode Island Legislature to succeed himself as United States Senator from Rhode Island. He will be reëlected at the next meeting of the legislature, as the Republicans have a large majority in both branches.

'69—Professor and Mrs. Henry A. Beers of New Haven have gone to Killam's Point, South Beach, for the Summer.

'69—The Hon. Cornelius T. Driscoll acted as one of the three judges in the competitive speaking by members of the Kent Club of the Law School for the Wayland prizes in College Street Hall, May 31.

'69—Charles E. Gross, President of the Hartford Board of Trade, presided and was one of the speakers at the meeting of the Connecticut Forestry Association held in Hartford, Wednesday, May 23.

'70—Professor and Mrs. Morris F. Tyler of New Haven have left the city for their Summer home at Woodbridge, Conn.

'72—Mr. and Mrs. Gerald L. Hoyt arrived from Europe, Wednesday, May 30. They were abroad less than a month. They returned thus soon in consequence of the death of Mr. Hoyt's brother, William Hoyt.

'72—Mr. and Mrs. Francis Schell arrived on the New York from Europe, May 28.

'72—Dr. Edmund W. Holmes delivered the address to the nurses at the graduating exercises of the Methodist Episcopal Hospital Training School for Nurses, Philadelphia, May 24.

'74—Professor Leonard B. Almy was elected President of the Connecticut State Medical Association at their 108th annual meeting in New Haven, May 23 and 24.

'74—Professor Henry W. Farnam, who is abroad on a year's leave of absence, is at present in Berlin, where he will remain some time.

'75 S.—The class secretary, George R. Cooley, reports that in answer to his inquiries, a large majority of the Class have expressed their preference to postpone the twenty-fifth anniversary reunion of the class until Bi-centennial year, 1901, and that the committee in charge have decided to take this action.

'76 S.—At the recent meeting of the Connecticut Medical Society in New Haven, Max Mailhouse was elected a delegate of the Society to the American Medical Association's meeting.

'76 M.S.—Dr. Edward H. Welch of West Winsted, Conn., was elected a delegate to the meeting of the American Medical Association at the recent meeting of the Connecticut Medical Society in New Haven.

'77 S.—Charles M. Jarvis of East Berlin, Conn., was elected, May 30, to the Board of Trustees of the Hartford Theological Seminary.

'77 T.S.—Professor George B. Adams, Ph.D., who is on a year's leave, is at present in London. He has been spending some weeks in Berlin.

'79—Lieutenant-Governor Timothy L. Woodruff of New York delivered the principal address at the Memorial Day services at Grant's Tomb, New York City.

'79—The resolutions eulogistic of Lieut.-Governor Timothy L. Woodruff, which were adopted by the Academy of Music in Brooklyn some time ago, were presented to him, May 28, at the Oxford Club in an engraved form and framed.

'80—It is expected that Sidney C. Partridge, Missionary Bishop to Japan, will return in time to be present at the reunion this Commencement.

'80—Norris G. Osborn was one of the speakers at the annual dinner of the Connecticut Medical Society, held at the New Haven House on the evening of May 24. His subject was "Suggestions from a Layman."

'80 S.—Colin M. Ingersoll, Jr., who was recently appointed Chief Engineer of the Consolidated Railroad, has taken up his duties at the New York, New Haven & Hartford R. R. Co.'s offices in New Haven.

'82—A. A. Welch of Hartford was recently elected a member of the council for the "Actuarial Society of America."

'84—Professor John M. Burnam, who is now making researches in the Vatican Library, has been appointed Professor of Latin at the University of Cincinnati.

'84—Franklin D. Bowen returned to this country, Friday, May 25, from Greece, where he has spent the Winter.

'84 S.—William T. Shepard has become connected with the Tonawanda Iron & Steel Co., in North Tonwanda.

'85 T.S.—Rev. Edwin K. Holden, since graduation the pastor of the Olivet Church, Bridgeport, Conn., has sufficiently recovered from a long and dangerous illness to go to the home of a brother, a physician in Boston. The church generously granted him six months vacation.

'86—The New York Times of Sunday, May 27, contained an article by Henry S. Brooks on "A Revolution in Intercollegiate Sport."

'87—Professor William Lyon Phelps will sail with his wife for Europe, June 23.

'87—At the meeting of the Gounod Society of New Haven, May 28, Professor William L. Phelps, Charles E. Cornwall, '88, and John C. Tracy, '90 S., were elected to the Board of Governors.

'87—Leslie D. Bissell is going to make a trip with a small party of boys through the Mediteranean and the Alps and thence to Paris, this Summer. They will leave about July 1 and will see the Passion Play at Ober-Ammergau.

'87 T.S.—Prof. Edward S. Parsons of Colorado College will sail with his family, July 19, for a year of travel and study abroad.

'88 S.—Cyrus F. Judson has been elected a Director of the General Carriage Company of New York.

'89—Frederic W. Wallace has just left the employ of the Coe Brass Company of Ansonia, Conn., to accept a position with the Waclark Wire Company of Elizabeth Port, N. J.

'90—The marriage of Miss Anna Richards, daughter of Professor Eugene L. Richard, '60, to James Locke, Ph.D., wil take place at Woodbridge, the Richards' country home, Thursday, June 21.

'90 S.—Harry G. Day acted as one of the three judges at the Wayland prize debate, held in College Street Hall, New Haven, Thursday, May 31.

'91—John F. Plummer, Jr., was in New Haven, May 24.

'91—James Eugene Farmer has a poem entitled "Ships of War," in the June number of the Bookman.

'92—James E. Wheeler is a member of one of the committees in connection with the India Relief Famine Association of New Haven.

'93—Frank E. Donnelly has left Wilkesbarre, Pa., and has opened an office in the Traders' National Bank Building, Scranton, Pa., for the general practice of law. He has formed a partnership with George H. Rice, who has been in active practice in Scranton for several years.

'94—W. R. Callender has been appointed a member of the alumni finance committee for the Delta Kappa Epsilon convention, which will be held at Providence, R. I. in November.

'94—Dr. H. W. Dunning is now in Greece, and will spend the Summer in Europe.

'94—The engagement has been announced of Miss Gertrude Fuller, daughter of Mrs. R. J. Fuller of Cleveland, O., to Arthur Judson.

'94 S.—The engagement is announced of Miss Anne D. Lewis, daughter of C. C. Lewis of Charleston, W. Va., to Howard S. Johnson.

'94 T.S.—The Rev. Henry H. Proctor, D.D., pastor of the First Congregational Church of Atlanta, Ga., preached the annual commencement sermon at the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute, Tuskegee, Ala., May 30.

'95—William Sloane has left Paris and will arrive in New York about June 7, on board the Oceanic.

'95 T.S.—Rev. George W. Phillips, who has been assistant rector of St. Paul's Church in New Haven, has resigned his position and will leave this Summer.

'96—Clarence De Witt has purchased a membership in the New York Stock Exchange.

'96—William W. Heaton has purchased a membership in the New York Stock Exchange.

'96—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Foote have taken a house at New Rochelle.

'96—Thomas F. Archbald was ordained as a Presbyterian minister, May 23, at Scranton, Pa. He will immediately take charge of the church at Cuba, N. Y., to which he has been called.

'96—The marriage of Miss Helen Ponder, daughter of Mr. nd Mrs. William A. Ponder of Denton, Texas, to Alfred H. Belo, Jr., will take place Tuesday evening, June 12.

'96 S. and '99 Ph.D.—Lee DeForest is with the American Wireless Telegraph Co. of Milwaukee, Wis., carrying on experiments on the Lakes in wireless telegraphy.

'96 S.—The marriage of Miss Sara Greenman Osgood to John Mills Warren, took place Saturday, June 2, at Trinity Church, New Haven. Mr. and Mrs. Warren will be at home after June 20, at the Atlantic, Bridgeport, Conn.

'96 T.S.—A son was born to Rev. and Mrs. C. K. Fankhauser, April 10. Mr. Fankhauser has resigned the pastorate of the First Congregational Church of Avon, Conn., and has removed to Northampton, Mass., where he will stay during the Summer. He will go abroad in September.

'97—Edward Tillotson took his degree at the Berkeley Divinity School, June 6.

'97—Herbert B. Augur has been elected Second Lieutenant of G Company, Third Regiment, Oregon National Guard.

'97—Next year, A. C. Walworth, Jr., will be with the Walworth Construction & Supply Co., doing steam engineering work in Boston.

'97—Harry M. Keator, captain of the University Nine in 1897, played left field on the Crescent Athletic Club against Yale, May 26.

'97—Lorenzo W. Housel, while riding his bicycle on Ashmun Street, New Haven, May 29, was thrown and received a severe cut over the left eye.

'97 T.S.—Dr. C. S. Macfarland will deliver the annual sermon to the graduates of the Maplewood School of Malden, Mass., Sunday, June 24, and will sail for Europe next Saturday, for a trip of three months.

'97 T.S.—Dr. H. F. Rall has been appointed to the pastorate of the M. E. Church at East Berlin, Conn.

'98—The address of M. Warren is 15 Muromachi, Kyoto, Japan.

'98—The engagement is announced of Miss Josephine B. Day of Hartford to M. Toscan Bennett.

'98—E. C. Noyes and L. G. Pettee are planning a trip in England and on the Continent with bicycles during July and August.

Ex-'98 S.—The all-round weight-throwing competition at the Knickerbocker Athletic Club games at Bergen Point, N. J., on Memorial Day, was won by Richard Sheldon.

'99—H. C. Robbins has poems in the June numbers of The Cosmopolitan and Harper's Weekly.

'90—Terry Hwee Lee is a teacher in an Anglo-Chinese School and his address is Care of Anglo-Chinese School, Penang, Straits Settlements.

'99—The permanent address of John P. Camp is 9 West 19th Street, New York City.

'99—Frederick A. Gorham, Jr., of Grand Rapids, Mich., who is traveling in the East on business, was in New Haven recently.

'99—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Phelps Dodge will reach New York on the Oceanic, June 7. They have been spending a few weeks on the continent, particularly in Paris.

'99 S.—The address of Richard S. Lamb, for the present, is Pine Orchard, Conn.

'99 S.—T. R. Fisher, Captain of the University track team last year, represented Yale at the meeting of the Intercollegiate Track Association held in New York, May 24, for the purpose of presenting Mr. W. B. Curtiss with a loving cup for his services as referee at the meets in past years.

YALE NOTICES.

[Class and Association Secretaries are invited to contribute to this column.]

Forty's Reunion.

Dear Classmates:

There will be a reunion of the Class of Forty, June 26, 1900 (the day pre-

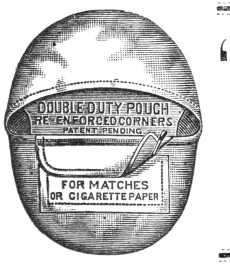
An academic student, experienced in tutoring, who will be in France during vacation, desires a position as tutor. Φ. B. K.

References: Dean Wright and Prof. E. L. Richards. Address,

C. M. DE FOREST,

387 Temple Street, New Haven.

If You Smoke Use the



"Double Duty" Pouch.

Does "DOUBLE DUTY" in a DOUBLE sense, as the POUCH CONTAINS POCKET for MATCHES or CIGARETTE PAPER, and does DOUBLE DUTY in extra wear, owing to SPECIAL CORNER "STAYS." "Acid cured" rubber is apt to wear brittle, or tender (especially black rubber). Our pouches are not "acid cured" and are guaranteed not to become either tender or brittle in use.

3 Sizes. { No. 4 sells for 60c. No. 5 sells for 70c. No. 6 sells for 80c. } Ask for it at Your Tobacconist's.

If Dealer Cannot Supply, we will mail on receipt of price.

COSMIC UTILITY CO., Dep. Y, 18 Cortlandt Street, New York.