

YALE ALUMNI NOTES.

'40—General Lewis B. Parsons has published a genealogy of the Parsons and Hoar families.

'43—The Rev. William W. Atterbury sailed for Europe, June 9, on the Etruria.

'46—Hon. Frederick K. Kingsbury, of Waterbury, Conn., has resigned his position as Treasurer of the Diocese of Connecticut after twenty years service.

'50—The address of Mr. and Mrs. Cyprian S. Brainerd for the Summer will be Haddam, Conn.

'52—The Woburn Journal, of Woburn, Mass., says: "On March 31, 1900, Harvard University asked Dr. Ephriam Cutter, the owner, to sell his Tolles $\frac{1}{16}$ inch objective, made in Boston in 1873 by order of G. B. Harriman, D.D.S., nephew of the late Dr. John Clough, and for 27 years the most famous microscope in the world—to be placed, and not used, as the highest culmination of the technique of the microscope. All kinds of microscopes are to be in the collection, which is intended to be historical only, and kept permanently for exhibition.

'57—Rev. Dr. Storrs O. Seymour was re-elected a member of the Standing Committee at the annual convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Connecticut, held in Hartford, June 12.

'58 S.—Mr. and Mrs. John Davenport Wheeler have returned from Europe and are at their home on Whitney Avenue, New Haven.

'59—Rev. Joseph H. Twichell has an article in the Outlook for June, entitled "Horace Bushnell in the Woods."

'59—Mr. and Mrs. Burton N. Harrison have gone to Bar Harbor and will spend the Summer there at their villa, "Sea Urchins."

'60—Rev. Henry C. Hart of Franklin, Conn., has removed to West Hartford.

'60—Rev. A. L. P. Loomis has entered upon the thirty-sixth year of his pastorate at Windsor, Wis.

'60—Maj. Clarence E. Dutton, U. S. A. Ordinance Department, has been ordered to proceed to the Rock Island Arsenal, Illinois, on official business pertaining to the installation of a small arms plant at that arsenal.

'61—Franklin B. Dexter, of the Yale Library, has recently published a small edition of the Diary of David McClure, Doctor of Divinity, 1748-1820.

'61—Winthrop D. Sheldon, Vice-President of Girard College, received the degree of Doctor of Laws from Ursinus College at the Commencement held June 14.

'61—Simeon E. Baldwin has been appointed by the Department of State a delegate from the United States to the Sixth International Prison Congress, to be held at Brussels in August.

'62—Charles N. Judson has been elected a member of the New York Law Institute.

'62—Frederick A. Ward has been chosen Recording Secretary of the Long Island Historical Society.

'62—The Rev. Henry H. Stebbins of Rochester, N. Y., will be one of the speakers at the annual banquet of the Phillips Academy Alumni Association at Andover, Mass., June 27.

'63—Governor George E. Lounsbury of Connecticut has been elected President of the First National Bank of Ridgefield, Conn.

'63—The Rev. Dr. Leander T. Chamberlain of New York City will deliver an address at the Commencement Exercises of Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., June 27.

'64—Rev. A. Douglas Miller has resigned the charge of the St. James Church in Fair Haven, where he has officiated during the past year.

'64—Samuel C. Darling, President of the Philomathian Society Association at Andover, will preside at the dinner celebrating the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Society, at Andover, June 27.

'65—Professor Charles H. Smith of Yale, delivered an address before the Arbitration Conference at Lake Mohonk, N. Y., June 8.

'65—William Stocking has for the present relinquished newspaper work which has been his chief occupation since graduation. He recently finished an elaborate historical and industrial sketch of Detroit, and is now engaged in writing a history of the Republican party with especial reference to Michigan, where the party was founded.

'66—Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Betts' address for the Summer will be Point Pleasant, New Jersey.

'67—William H. Bishop, of Yale and his family have gone to their Summer home at Oxford, Conn., for the vacation.

'67—George Peabody Wetmore was re-elected United States Senator from Rhode Island at a special session of the General Assembly in Providence, June 12.

'68—The Right Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, Bishop of the Diocese of Connecticut, preached the baccalaureate sermon for the graduating class of St. Margaret's School, Waterbury, Conn., June 3.

'68 S.—Prof. Henry S. Williams of Yale University has just published "The Story of the 19th Century Science." This is a collection of his papers that have from time to time appeared in Harper's Magazine.

'69—Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Cameron will spend the Summer at Hampton House, Bridgehampton, Long Island.

'69—At a meeting of the Connecticut Mayors' Association held in New Haven, June 12, Hon. Cornelius T. Driscoll of New Haven was elected President for the ensuing year.

'69—Eli Whitney, President of the New Haven Board of Education, was one of the speakers at the dinner, June 12, in honor of Mr. C. N. Kendall, who is about to retire from his position as Superintendent of New Haven Schools.

'69 S.—Professor and Mrs. A. Jay DuBois will go to their country home at Holderness, Mass., after Commencement.

'72—Nine sons of members of the Class of 1872 are at present enrolled in the Academic Department of the University.

'72—The Rev. Edwin S. Lines, D.D., of New Haven, was elected Second Vice-President of the Alumni Association of the Berkeley Divinity School at a meeting held at Middletown, Conn., June 6.

'73 and '77—The law firm of Tracy, Boardman & Platt has been changed by the retirement of Gen. B. F. Tracy. The firm is now Boardman, Platt & Soley, 35 Wall Street. Albert B. Boardman graduated from Yale in 1873 and Frank H. Platt in 1877.

'73 S.—Professor Andrew W. Phillips was one of the speakers at the dinner in honor of Mr. C. N. Kendall, the retiring Superintendent of Schools of New Haven, June 12.

'74—David A. Kennedy, with his son, Chauncey Clark Kennedy, sailed on the Teutonic, June 13, for a three months' trip on the Continent.

'74 L.S.—Henry F. English has given an addition of $1,000 to the formation of the Alice Kimball English Prizes in the University.

'76—James B. Dill addressed the Williams College literary societies, June 8, on "The College Man and the Corporate Proposition."

'76—The degree of Doctor of Laws was given President Arthur T. Hadley at the Commencement exercises of Columbia University, Wednesday, June 13.

'76 S.—James L. Houghteling of Chicago, President of the National Council, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, delivered an address, Friday, June 8, to members of the brotherhood in St. John's Episcopal Church, Clifton, Staten Island, on "The Brotherhood Outlook." Mr. Houghteling was in New Haven, June 9.

'77—F. H. Platt is spending the Summer with his family at Monmouth Beach, N. J.

Ex-'78—William H. Hunt, whose appointment as Secretary of Porto Rico has been recorded in this column, has been for the past twenty-one years a resident of Montana, and for eleven years one of its most distinguished jurists and judges. On May 21 he resigned his office as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Montana, to accept the position tendered him by the President, of Secretary of Porto Rico. Judge Hunt only a few days prior to the above appointment had been offered and had accepted the position of Counsel to the Chilean Claims Commission soon to organize and sit in Washington for the adjudication of certain claims of the Chilean Government against the United States. Judge Hunt has been a resident of Montana since early manhood, at first practicing law, then elected to the District Judgeship at Helena, the Capital, and, over five years ago, elected to the Supreme Court. During this term he has been prominent in deciding many important questions of law, and, perhaps more than any other man has been a factor in forming the jurisprudence of this new State. On the eve of his departure for the East, lawyers from all sections of the State assembled in Helena, and in a meeting remarkable for its profound and earnest expressions of respect and good wishes, passed resolutions appropriate to the occasion, and significant of the regard in which the members of the bar hold him. Judge Hunt at once enters upon the duties of his new position in Porto Rico.

'79—Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Bulkley will spend the Summer in Kennebunkport, Me., returning to their Brooklyn home, 20 Remsen Street, October 15.

'80 S.—George B. Phelps arrived on the St. Paul from Southampton and Cherbourg, June 2.

'80 T.S.—Prof. William F. Blackman, whose family have been in Europe for some time, is now in Paris with them. They will return this Fall.

'80 T.S.—At the annual meeting of the Outlook Committee of the Congregational Club held June 11 at Hartford, the Rev. William W. Leete was elected a member and delivered an address on "Our Debt to Our Ancestors of the New Haven Colony and What we may Learn from Them."

'83—Miss Lillian Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stevens, and Harry Roberts Hillard, were married Wednesday evening, June 13, at 47 Miami Avenue, Columbus, O.

'83—Frank H. Beede was one of the speakers at the dinner given June 12 in honor of Mr. C. N. Kendall, whom he is about to succeed as Superintendent of Schools of New Haven, on Mr. Kendall's resignation to accept a similar position in Indianapolis.

'84—Professor Howard H. Higbee has resigned the Childs Professorship of Chemistry at Hamilton College, Clinton, N. J.

'85—Dr. Richard S. Storrs has been elected President of the Long Island Historical Society.

'86—The Rev. Charles F. Clarke was elected President of the New Haven Congregational Club for the coming year, June 11.

'86—William B. Goodwin of New York is one of the incorporators of the newly formed Empire Silk Manufacturing Co., capitalized at $600,000.

'86 S.—Willis B. Herr is now practicing law at Seattle, Wash.

'87—Hon. James R. Sheffield of New York City, has been elected President of the newly-formed Republican Association of College Men in New York.

'87 S.—The wedding of Miss Mabel Goodsell of East Orange and Joseph C. Jackson, Jr., of New York, son of General Joseph C. Jackson, '57, took place at Christ Church, East Orange, June 14. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Caskey, '65, pastor of the American Church at Dresden, assisted by Rev. Mr. Davis of Christ Church parish. The bride was given away by her brother, Percy Hamilton Goodsell of Christ Church, Oxford, and the best man was the groom's brother, John D. Jackson, '90. The ushers were Percy Jackson, '85 S.; James H. Hayden,

'87 S.; William F. Jackson, Princeton '85; Samuel D. Parker, Harvard '90.

'90—Dr. Ralph A. McDonnell of New Haven attended the annual meeting of the American Medical Association, which was held at Atlantic City, N. J., during the first week of June.

'90 T.S.—The Rev. Edward T. Ford has accepted a call to the pastorate of the First Congregational Church, Tacoma, Washington, and has entered on the duties of the position.

'91—William R. Moody, of Mount Hermon, Mass., spoke at the First Baptist Church of Hartford, Conn., June 7, on the "Northfield Conference."

'92—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Mason of Denver, Colorado, June 8.

Ex-'92—Dr. M. J. Synnott has opened an office in his own building at 26 South Fullerton Ave., Montclair, N. J., with residence at 60 North Fullerton Ave. He has been in practice for the past five years in Little Falls, N. J. His practice there hereafter will be in charge of Dr. W. W. MacAllister.

'93—Dr. Arthur L. Wheeler has been elected Associate Professor and head of the Latin Department at Bryn Mawr College. He has resigned his position at Yale and will enter upon his new duties at the beginning of the next college year.

'93 S.—Alexander J. Campbell is General Superintendent of the San Antonio Mine and several other mines

Tutor or Companion for the Summer.

CURTIS H. WALKER, '99,
97 Whitney Avenue,
New Haven, Conn.

Reference, Dean's Office.

Elegant residence, 115 Dwight St., every convenience and luxury, for sale or rent; furnished or unfurnished. Apply on the premises.

GRAND UNION HOTEL
NEW YORK

GOOD COOKING APPEALS

to every traveler. Our chef is the equal of any in New York, our prices more moderate, and our service equals the best.

The Grand Union Hotel directly opposite the Grand Central Station is a high-class, comfortable, home-like hotel, with moderate prices. European Plan.

Rates, $1 a day and upwards

If You Smoke
Use the

"Double Duty"
Pouch.

Does "DOUBLE DUTY" in a DOUBLE sense, as the POUCH CONTAINS POCKET for MATCHES or CIGARETTE PAPER, and does DOUBLE DUTY in extra wear, owing to SPECIAL CORNER "STAYS." "Acid cured" rubber is apt to wear brittle, or tender (especially black rubber). Our pouches are not "acid cured" and are guaranteed not to become either tender or brittle in use.

3 Sizes. { No. 4 sells for 60c. No. 5 sells for 70c. No. 6 sells for 80c. } Ask for it at Your Tobacconist's.

If Dealer Cannot Supply, we will mail on receipt of price.

COSMIC UTILITY CO., Dep. Y, 18 Cortlandt Street, New York.