

New Haven Country Club Team was defeated 26 to 0, on their own links; while on the following Wednesday, May 23, in the return match, they suffered a heavier defeat, by 39 holes to 3. On the whole the season has been all that could be desired, as the team has not only won all its matches, but has gained permanent possession of the Lawrence Harbor cup, which on its arrival will be placed in the trophy room at the Gymnasium.

Captain T. M. Robertson, 1901, picked his players from the following squad of eleven men: T. L. Cheney, 1901; E. M. Byers, 1901; Charles Hitchcock, 1903; L. P. Myers, 1901 S.; A. T. Dwight, 1900 S.; F. C. Havemeyer, 1900; C. D. Barnes, 1902; P. Cheney, 1901; G. H. Hull, Jr., 1902; W. R. Hitt, 1901; S. O. Vander Poel, Jr., 1903.

University Tennis Tournament.

The annual University tennis tournament which has been in progress for some weeks, was practically finished last Saturday, June 9, when H. A. Plummer, 1903, was defeated by H. H. Hackett, 1900, in the final round, 8-6, 8-6, 4-6 and 6-4. Hackett will play J. A. Allen, 1900 S., the present holder of the championship, the latter part of this week.

The standard of play has been generally quite up to that of previous years and an encouraging number of more than fifty entries was made for the tournament, principally from the Sophomore and Freshman classes. But thus far no brilliant players have appeared, nor in fact any who will immediately fill the places of Hackett and Allen, the present runner up and champion, who both graduate in June. The best of the new men seem to be C. S. Childs, 1901 S.; S. L. Russell, 1902 S., who at one time held the Northwestern Championship, and H. A. Plummer, 1903, who reached the final round.

Yale Men in the Paris Games.

Although Yale will send no men directly to the games to be held in Paris the last weeks in July, four Yale men will compete. They are: Bascom Johnson, 1900, Captain of the Yale Track Team, in the pole vault; Dixon Boardman, 1902, will enter the 220 and 440-yard dashes, and Richard Sheldon, ex-'98 S., will compete in the weight events. George Foster Sanford, Yale '97 L.S., will compete in the middle distance runs. Pennsylvania, Princeton, Cornell and Syracuse will send regularly organized teams to the games, each team being composed of from four to six men.

Bicycle Team Captain.

William Joseph Ehrich, 1900 S., of New York City, has been elected Captain of the Yale Bicycle Team for next year.

He has been on the Bicycle Team for his entire course and was the Intercollegiate Quarter-mile Champion last year. He is considered one of the best sprinters among college riders.

Track Captains Elected.

J. W. Hallowell, 1901, has been elected Captain of the Harvard Track Team for next year; Alexander W. Coleman, 1902, of the Princeton Team; Robert Deming has been unanimously re-elected Captain of the Cornell Team, and S. S. Jones, 1902, of the New York University Team.

Mr. Decrow's Score Book.

A baseball score book differing in several important details from the ones now in use has been invented and copyrighted by John W. Decrow, 1900. The book is meant to fit the pocket and the leaf space, though small, has been arranged so ingeniously that there is quite as much room left for entering the plays as is found in the official score books.

Cross Country Club Elections.

At a meeting of the Yale Cross Country Club, held Wednesday evening, June 6, J. F. Ferry, 1901 S., of Lake Forest, Ill., was elected President and B. G. Teel, 1902, of Wells, Me., Captain of the Club. These officers succeed respectively P. Strong, 1901, and S. B. Chittenden, 1902, resigned.

Interappointment Baseball.

The Record interappointment baseball teams finished an unusually successful season, Wednesday, June 6, when the Disappointment team defeated the Second Disputes in the final game of the series, 15 to 7. The victory of the Disappointments in the interappointment series was deserved as the nine has played consistently throughout. Their battery, Brown and Angus, was a strong one, and received good support. Each member of the team will receive a banner.

The following were the scores in the various games: Disappointments 10, High Oration 5; Sigma Xi, 17, Philosophicals 5; Disappointments 14, Sigma Xi 11; First Colloquies 13, Disputations 8; Second Colloquies 7, First Disputes 3; Second Disputes 20, Oration 11; Second Disputes 11, Second Colloquies 6; Disappointments 15, Second Disputes 7.

Never before has such interest been shown in scrub baseball as this year, and for a greater part of the season the number of games played daily was limited only by the available grounds. Some of the teams played well and had frequent matches with outside nines, including those of the near-by preparatory schools.

The Baccalaureate Address.

Instead of the Baccalaureate sermon of former years President Hadley will deliver what is called in the program for Commencement week the "Baccalaureate Address," to the Senior Class. The address will differ very little from the sermon and will be on the same general lines as that delivered by his predecessors.

Perhaps it is and perhaps it isn't a Straw hat you want; but it's probably a Knox Hat.
