

YALE ALUMNI NOTES.

'40—Prof. J. M. Hoppin's "Old England," which has reached its twelfth edition, will be brought out in a cheaper form by a Western publishing company.

'56—Senator Chauncey M. Depew has written the introduction to "The Lawyers' Alcove: Poems by the Lawyer, for the Lawyer, About the Lawyer," edited by Ina R. Warren.

'60—Hon. Robert N. Willson of Philadelphia sailed for Europe with his family Saturday, June 16.

'50—By a special vote of the Corporation, Leonard Addison Hendrick, a former member of Fifty, was given the degree of B.A. and enrolled with his Class.

'60—Rev. Samuel Dunham, Brimington, N. Y., after a pastorate of twenty-seven years, is rejoicing in the completion, free of debt, of the finest church building in that city. It was erected in memory of his wife.

'60—Among the minor bequests of the late Rev. Dr. Storrs were some to Dr. F. H. Colton, '60, whom Dr. Storrs mentioned as his beloved physician and friend, and to Dr. Colton's son and namesake of Dr. Storrs, Richard Storrs Colton.

'60—William H. Hale has secured a decision of Justice Gaynor of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, which corrects some long standing errors in the rules and practice of the municipal court of the City of New York. It decides that the fees established by the rule of that court are excessive and without warrant of law, and that the practice of deputizing persons not marshals to serve summons without request of the plaintiff, is illegal.

'61—Rev. Theodore S. Wynkoop, D.D., who for the past six years has been Secretary of the North India Bible Society at Allahabad, India, has returned to this country and was a member of the Ecumenical Council recently held in New York. His present address is 2027 G St., Washington, D. C.

'62—"The Constitution Follows the Flag," an address delivered at West Brookfield, Mass., May 30, by D. H. Chamberlain, has been published in pamphlet form.

'65—John F. Dryden, as announced elsewhere, was given an honorary M.A., and enrolled with his class at the last Commencement.

'68 S.—The reference to Dr. Henry S. Williams in the last issue of the WEEKLY, was information concerning Dr. Henry Smith Williams and not concerning Prof. Henry Shaler Williams, of Yale, as given in the note.

'71—James MacNaughton read a paper before the American Forestry Congress at the New York meeting, June 23, on "History of Forestry Legislation and Administration in the State of New York."

'77—Arthur Reed Kimball has an article in the July number of the Atlantic Monthly on "The Invasion of Journalism."

'80—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John S. Harding, Tuesday, June 26.

'80 S.—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Moorhead, Jr., April 30.

'83—Edward N. Dingley of Kalamazoo, Mich., responded to the toast, "College and Press Co-laborers in Education," at the thirteenth annual meeting of the Western Michigan Congregational Club, held in Olivet, Mich., May 14.

'83—Robida, the famous French artist, who designed "Le Vieux Paris" for the Exposition, has presented William Trumbull with a painting illustrating the latter's poem, "The Wounded Boer," which appeared in the New York Times last Winter.

'83—Dr. John Franklin Crowell, of the Alfred Carnney Clark Neighborhood House, New York City, has been appointed Expert on Internal Commerce in the U. S. Treasury Department, Bureau of Statistics, Washington. Dr. Crowell has recently prepared a special report for the U. S. Industrial Commission on "The Distribution of Farm Products."

'84—Dr. E. O. Hovey contributes to the Scientific American supplement of June 16, an article on the "Wind Cave of South Dakota," which he has explored.

'86—Willis H. Goodyear, President of the Goodyear Law Book Co., Minneapolis, Minn., is visiting his brother-in-law, Isaac J. Wild, '67, of New Haven.

'87—A third daughter was born to Dr. and Mrs. H. T. Partree, June 11.

'87—Frederick A. Stokes Company of New York have in press a volume entitled "The Case and Exceptions," by Frederick Trevor Hill. The book bears the sub-title of "Stories of Lawyers and their Clients" and the scenes are laid in and about the courts of New York City. Publication is to be made in the Autumn.

JOHN F. DRYDEN, '65
Given the degree of M.A. by Yale and enrolled with the Class.

'87—Prof. and Mrs. William Lyon Phelps sailed Saturday, June 23, on the S. S. Menominee, Atlantic Transport Line, for England. They will remain in London practically all Summer. Prof. Phelps is writing a book, to be the history of the English drama in the Eighteenth century, and he will spend the vacation collecting material for it in the British Museum.

'88 S.—The engagement is announced of Miss Elizabeth K. Pendleton, daughter of Mrs. Samuel Pendeton of Wallingford, Conn., to Edwin H. Lockwood.

'89—As noticed elsewhere, Rev. Clifford Barnes has been called to the Presidency of Illinois College at Jacksonville, Ill.

'91—G. S. Talcott of the American Hosiery Co., New Britain, Conn., and Mrs. Talcott are expecting to sail on the steamer Bismarck, June 28. They are to go first to Paris, where they will spend several weeks.

'91—A daughter, Ruth Josephine, was born June 13 to Rev. and Mrs. Francis T. Brown. Mr. Brown has recently been appointed to the pastorate of the First Methodist Episcopal Church (State St.), Schenectady, N. Y.

'92—Dr. Henry G. Webster has been elected Secretary of the Brooklyn (N. Y.) Pathological Society for the ensuing year.

'92—Prof. Norman C. Whittemore, who has been in the mission field in Corea for the last four years, is now in this country on a two months' visit, with his headquarters at his home in Rye, N. Y.

'92 T.S.—Rev. J. D. Ritchey has become Rector of the Episcopal Church in Wichita, Kan., having removed from Old Orchard, Mo.

'93—Derby Rogers is tutoring at Bourne, Mass.

'93—A son was born to Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Sutphen of Newark, N. J., June 11.

'93—Mrs. Henry F. Hills of Amherst, Mass., has announced the engagement of her daughter, Caroline Cheney Hills to J. Weston Allen of Boston.

'93—R. C. W. Wadsworth, who has been with the New York Evening Post since graduation, has recently been appointed Assistant City Editor of that paper.

'93—Recent communications to William H. Murphy have been returned by the Post Office authorities. Anyone who knows his address will confer a favor by notifying the Secretary, Noah H. Swayne, 2d, Cedartown, Ga.

'93—Richard Holbrook sailed for Cherbourg, Saturday, June 30, on the steamship Graf Waldersee. He expects to spend the Summer chiefly at St. Sebastian, Spain. Mr. Holbrook will have an article in the August number of one of the leading magazines. His book,

"Boys and Men," is now in its second edition

'93—The Class Secretary has sent three circular letters to each of the following members of the Class since February 1, 1900 and has received no reply. Any one knowing the address of any of those names will confer a favor by sending it to Noah H. Swayne, 2d, Cedartown, Ga.: H. S. Bowns, C. W. Clark, G. M. Foos, S. C. Hutchins, Paul Klimpke, C. W. Mills, J. S. Moore, A. H. Morse, W. H. Murphy, G. L. Rathbone, H. G. Thomson, R. B. Wade, A. B. White.

'93 S.—Colonel George Curtis Treadwell, Military Secretary to Governor Roosevelt, sailed for England Saturday, June 30, on the Lucania, bound for the Paris Exposition, where he will spend several weeks.

'93 T.S.—Miss Mary Appleton Shute has announced the marriage of her sister Helen Winifred Shute to Dr. Warren Joseph Moulton, which took place June 21, in Boston.

'94—Dr. A. R. Defendorf was elected a member of the New York Neurological Society at the annual meeting, June 5, at which time he presented a paper on "Periodical Psychoses."

'96—Miss Margaret West and Troy S. Kinney were married in Chicago, June 9.

'96—Albert C. Jones was ordained to the priesthood of the Protestant Episcopal Church at Gambien, Ohio, Sunday, June 24.

'96—Miss Leila Strobbridge Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beecher Holmes, and Dudley Landon Vaill, were married June 28 at Winsted, Conn.

'96 S.—A son, Gardner Morse Corbin, was born July 3, to Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur R. Corbin.

'96 S.—M. J. Ballin has just finished his course at the College of Physicians of Columbia and will continue his work for two years at Vienna.

'97—Frank H. Bosworth, Jr., is at present studying in Paris, where his address is 16 Rue d'Assas.

'97—Dudley V. Sutphin and Philip Hinkle graduated from the Department of Law, University of Cincinnati, with the degree of LL.B., June 12, and were admitted to the bar of Ohio, June 20.

'97—At the graduation exercises of Cornell University Medical School, New York City, June 6, Frank C. Yeomans was first on the honor list and received the first Harriet Crocker Alexander prize of $150 for general proficiency.

'97—William H. Cowley, Jr., and Frank C. Dodd sail for Southampton, England, on the Kaiser Wilhelm, July 3, to travel in England, Germany, Switzerland and France. They will return about the middle of September.

'97 S.—Miss Grace Alvord, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Alvord of South Norwalk, Conn. and Samuel E. Hoyt, were married June 14 at South Norwalk.

'97 S.—Allan E. Ransom has been sent to Phillipsburgh, Montana, by the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Co., Pittsburg, Pa., to install and operate for some months an alternating electric plant.

'98—C. E. Merrill has a poem in East and West for July.

'98—Isaac Bliss is in the Actuarial Department of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York City.

'98 and 1901 M.S.—N. A. Burr has been elected Chairman of the Yale Medical Journal for the ensuing year.

'98—Grenville Parker has left the office of W. R. Houghtaling & Co., to accept a position with N. W. Harris & Co., 31 Nassau St., New York.

'98—Mandeville Mullally has accepted a position with Adams & Clarke, bankers and brokers. His present address is 66 Broadway, New York City.

'98—Ernest C. Noyes will receive the degree of M.A. from Harvard University this Spring. His Summer address will be 136 Warren St., Newton Center, Mass.

'98—Robert T. Garrison has left the Knickerbocker Trust Company and is now with his brother, C. M. Garrison, in the Copper Wire commission business at 100 Williams St., New York City.

'98—Frederic Kernochan and Robert

BUSINESS OPENING.

Yale man (alumnus preferred) wishing business location within 10 miles of the University can learn of exceptionally desirable opportunity in large business by writing DRAWER X, Alumni Weekly. Present owner has invested $30,000 of his own, wants to enlarge, and seeks capital and energy this way.

Tutor or Companion for the Summer.

CURTIS H. WALKER, '99,
97 Whitney Avenue,
New Haven, Conn.
Reference, Dean's Office.

TUTORING . .

During the Summer for entrance examinations. Mathematics a specialty. Address for particulars.

R. B. NISBET,
313 York St. New Haven, Conn.

GRAND UNION HOTEL
NEW YORK

GOOD COOKING APPEALS

to every traveler. Our chef is the equal of any in New York, our prices more moderate, and our service equals the best.

The Grand Union Hotel directly opposite the Grand Central Station is a high-class, comfortable, home-like hotel, with moderate prices. European Plan.

Rates, $1 a day and upwards

If You Smoke Use the "Double Duty" Pouch.

Does "DOUBLE DUTY" in a DOUBLE sense, as the POUCH CONTAINS POCKET for MATCHES or CIGARETTE PAPER, and does DOUBLE DUTY in extra wear, owing to SPECIAL CORNER "STAYS." "Acid cured" rubber is apt to wear brittle, or tender (especially black rubber). Our pouches are not "acid cured" and are guaranteed not to become either tender or brittle in use.

3 Sizes. { No. 4 sells for 60c. No. 5 sells for 70c. No. 6 sells for 80c. } Ask for it at Your Tobacconist's.

If Dealer Cannot Supply, we will mail on receipt of price.

COSMIC UTILITY CO., Dep. Y, 18 Cortlandt Street, New York.