

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE.

The 1900 football schedule is as follows: Sept. 29, Boston Latin; Oct. 6, Williston Seminary; Oct. 10, New Hampshire College; Oct. 13, Holy Cross; Oct. 20, open for Harvard Freshmen; Oct. 24, Yale Freshmen; Oct. 31, Boston College; Nov. 3, Harvard Freshmen; Nov. 10, Exeter.

The schedule is not quite complete. All games will be played at Andover.

At the Interscholastic track meet in Cambridge, Saturday, June 9, Andover won second place with 21½ points. W. A. Schick, Jr., won the 100-yards dash in record time and broke the record for the 220-yards dash, doing it in 21¾ sec. Capt. D. G. Crawford ran a beautiful race in the half-mile and defeated his old opponent, Moran of Worcester, by whom he has been beaten twice. D. H. Botchford won third place in the 440-yards run and the broad jump and tied Connor of Exeter for third in the high jump. C. S. Fallows took second in the broad jump, P. H. Sherwin third in the bicycle race, and G. M. Goldsmith third in the mile.

BASEBALL CAPTAIN.

William Clarence Matthews, 1901, of Montgomery, Ala., has been elected Captain of the Baseball Nine for next year. Matthews has played shortstop on the team for three seasons and is the best all-around athlete in school. Besides his baseball he has played end on the football team three years and has been a member of the track team two years. He came to Andover from Tuskegee Institute, where he captained the baseball nine.

The annual senior reception was given at the residence of Principal C. F. P. Bancroft on Friday evening, June 15. It was most successful. The invitations numbered 350 and besides the Seniors of Phillips Academy the guests included the young ladies of the two upper classes of Abbott Academy, the faculties of Andover's three educational institutions and many of the young society people of the town. Dr. Bancroft and his daughters, Misses Francis and Mary Bancroft, received from 8 to 10 o'clock. During a large part of the evening the guests enjoyed themselves out of doors.

Rev. Dr. J. W. Wellman of Malden, Mass., who for thirty years has been on the board of trustees, resigned his place at the recent annual meeting of the board.

Saturday, June 9, Andover wound up the baseball season by defeating Exeter on the home grounds, 9 to 5. The game was intensely exciting. Andover outplayed her opponents all around, except perhaps in base running, which is one of Exeter's strong points. The battery work of Stevens and Winslow for Andover was especially good. Andover made four hits in the first and several doubles and triples later on. The Andover Nine played the best ball they have played this season.

Exeter played a plucky game, but the support which the battery received was rather poor. In the sixth inning she made a splendid rally, scoring four runs and giving Andover a bad scare.

CLASS DAY.

Tuesday, June 26, was class day. The exercises were held in the Chapel and on the campus in front of the Academy building, beginning at 2 o'clock. The weather was fine. The officers of the day were: Historian, Carlyle Garrison, Merchantville, N. J.; Poet, Henry Longfellow Wadsworth, Lawrence, Mass.; Statistician, George Edmond Merrill, Cheyenne, Wyo.; Orator, Henry Hamlin Stebbins, Rochester, N. Y.; Prophet, Emerson Woods Baker, Fitchburg, Mass.

The tree exercises were held out of doors after the completion of the program in the chapel. Fred Lewis Collins, President of the class, presented the spade to the Class of 1901, the spade being received by Abel Wilder Brown, New York, President of 1901. The tree song was written by Henry Longfellow Wadsworth, Poet, and was set to music by Louis Ammon Gould, Danbury, Conn.

Tuesday evening the thirty-fourth annual speaking of selected declamations for the Draper prizes was held in the chapel. A good sized audience was present, including many people from out of town who were attending the exercises of Commencement week. First prize was awarded to Sidney Henry Smith, 1901, London, England, whose declamation was entitled "The Defence of Hofer." Second award was made to Arthur James Derbyshire, 1900, Lawrence, Mass. His piece was "The Robber Barons of To-day." Third prize was won by Gilbert Browning, 1901, Morristown, N. J., whose piece was "The Victor of Marengo." During the consultation of the judges, Principal C. F. P. Bancroft made a few remarks in which he called attention to the presence of Mr. Warren F. Draper, who in 1867 founded the prize which bears his name.

COMMENCEMENT.

Wednesday, June 27, at ten A.M., the Commencement exercises were held in the Seminary Church. The church, beautifully decorated, was filled with relatives and friends. The Commencement essays were as follows: "The Reclamation of Arid America," George Edmond Merrill, Cheyenne, Wyo.; "The Greek Sapho," Leonard Sanford Tyler, New Haven, Conn.; "Progress in the Nineteenth Century," Fred Lewis Collins, Andover.

After the essays came a poem by Edward S. Martin, '72, written on the occasion of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Philomathian Society. The historical address was delivered by Rev. Leander T. Chamberlain, '59, of New York. An organ recital was given by Everette E. Truette, '78, of Boston. Following these came the awarding of diplomas, the announcement of prizes and the class hymn.

Senior honors were distributed as follows: Greek—Harland Hogue Ballard, Jr., Pittsfield, Mass.; Elbert Henry Dyer, Lawrence, Mass.; Francis Howard Fobes, Lexington, Mass.; George Merrill Gelsler, Webster, N. Y.; William Northrop Morse, Amherst, Mass.; Brainard Edwards Smith, Salem Depot, N. H. Latin—Harland Hogue Ballard, Jr., Francis Howard Fobes. Latin Com-

"A slice to a pipeful" is one reason why Old English Curve Cut pipe tobacco is so popular. The curved tin box that fits any pocket is another reason. No other pipe tobacco has ever made as many friends in so short a time.

"It disappoints no one." A trial box will be sent to any one anywhere on receipt of ten cents in stamps. Address Old English Department, The American Tobacco Co., 111 Fifth Avenue, New York City. All dealers sell it.

THE "OLD RELIABLE" PARKER

once more proves its right to the title, at the . . . GRAND AMERICAN HANDICAP of 1900. First—H. D. Bates, with 59 straight kills. Second—J. R. Malone, with 58 straight kills. Third—Phil. Daly, Jr., with 31 straight kills. All used the "Old Reliable." Also, as the official records show, 54% of the entire purse won with PARKERS, 37.5% of all guns winning money were PARKERS, and 34.6% of all guns entered were PARKERS, which proves that the PARKER is unquestionably the most popular and "reliable" gun in the World.
